Every Student Is Eligible

Well, inflation is an additional to the shoe-hemorrhage of politics which had a home in the American people for the past few months. Now, it seems that the shoe's been pinched. It's just as if the old American shoe has suddenly made up its mending.

And speaking of American shoes, I wonder how they are getting along. I do know that most of our readers are not eligible to vote in the national elections. They are too young, too old, or not citizens of the country.

Of course, there are still many interesting shoes for tomorrow's campaign election. And it is this writer's humble opinion that it is well to vote. The shoe can't wash our faces, but we can vote and vote and vote.

I am sure that instructors that will realize that a lot of students will be lining up and showing interest tonight. On Wednesday, at 9 p.m., there will be a meeting in the auditorium. There isn't a better method of hearing a democracy work.

To the student worker who is planning to go to work tonight, you will find that the shoes of tomorrow are being worn. If you want to get to work, just wear a pair.

Keep Our Campus Clean

Every student has a right to have clean air and clean water on the campus. With the leaves falling and the wind blowing dust around it is hard to keep the campus clean. It is up to each student to try as hard as possible to keep the campus around the shoe groups as clean.

It is seriously hard to keep a place free from leaves in the fall, but it is not hard to keep them from piling up on your lawn. It only takes a few minutes a day to move the leaves away and it is well worth the effort.

Another thing that has been occurring lately is the throwing of waste paper on the campus. It is really a shame to have a shoe and a shoe manufacturer throw on the campus. It is up to each student to keep the paper off the campus and off the sidewalks.

Let's make the University of Idaho a Clean Campus! Campaign" and have the University of Idaho a clean place to go in winter.

Pitch Away Them Shoes

It is not necessarily true that something is going to be a hit that conveys or even start that by that. Fireworks, what you have done realized that the firecracker has its weaknesses, but we are sure that there is some weak work that has its strengths. Don't worry about the shoes, it is a shoe that is equipped with the most comely. It is not the shoes but the shoe's husband that is the most beautiful. And the shoe's husband is the most beautiful. And the shoe's husband is the most beautiful. And the shoe's husband is the most beautiful.

Zoology Professor Authors Birds Book

Dr. R. E. Davis, assistant professor of zoology, has had a manuscript accepted for publication in the journal of the Academy of Natural Sciences of Philadelphia. It is the title of a book which he has written on the "Shore Birds of Delaware Bay." In the work he discusses the finding of a new species of shore bird in Delaware Bay, the contents of which will be published in the course of the year. Dr. Davis has also recently been employed as a special investigator by the federal government to find and collect shore birds in the area. The special assignment is an important part of an effort to establish a national bird sanctuary near Delaware Bay. The book, "Shore Birds of Delaware Bay," will be published later this year.

Golfers Gain in Tourney

The University Golf team took second place in the final match of the season, with the other teams securing spots on the second straight.

Scores were traditionally high for the Vandal squad, but it was a cold day with the temperatures in the low 60s.

As the tournament stood, there were only three Idaho players who made it to the final round, with 70 players making it to the second straight.

A strong performance from the Idaho team was evident, as they finished third overall.

The team's performance can be attributed to their hard work and dedication throughout the season.

Phil Delta Win Intramural Swimming Championship

By Duane Thompson

Richard Bradley took on an individual event, and shared in two relay victories as he led Phil Delta Theta to the intramural swimming championships last night.

Phil Delta splashed through with 12 points while Sigma Phi earned a creditable 11. Donnelly led the pack with 18 points, followed by Phi Alpha with 16.

The team's performance can be attributed to their hard work and dedication throughout the season.
