"Annual" Walkathon Made By Loyola Idaho Students

It was a sunny and frosty morning, but spiritual, group of Idaho students who arrived on the campus early last Sunday for their walkathon on campus.

The walkathon began at 8 a.m. with a prayer service in the chapel. The students then walked around the campus, collection money for various charities.

Dr. Graue Will Speak On Turkey

Korean Gift Drive Climaxed Tuesday

Their tour continued as they walked around the campus, collection money for various charities.

Dr. Graue will speak on turkey at the annual banquet held Saturday evening.

"Molotov Turkey" will be the theme of the banquet, which is sponsored by the Phi Kappa Phi club.

"The people of our club are very happy about this event," said Dr. Graue. "We believe that this will be a successful and enjoyable event for everyone involved."
Could This Be You?

Are you a Diplomat? Are you any of your friend's or acquaintances?

"Alleged" but not really, however, the methods with which I propose to prove the following statements are above my present means of expression.

New Water Tank Is Now Servicing University Campuses

"It's time," I'm told, "to announce the imminent completion of the new water tank. It will be placed in operation Saturday, November 14th. Just a few weeks longer, and the University will be able to display all of its new features, but more than that, the new tank will provide necessary security and assist in the reduction of fire losses for the University."
