Vandals Get Shutout
At Hands Of Underdogs

Color and pageantry reigned here Saturday as some 2000 guests from all over the state descended on Moscow for the annual Homecoming festivities highlighted by the football game between the Idaho Vandals and the Idaho State Bengals. It was the last game that the Vandals played before the season ended for the 1930 Idaho H⊜bs.

A sea of red and yellow flooded the UI campus with the arrival of the Bengals and their fans. The stadium was filled to capacity as the fans roared the Vandals on to their first win of the season. The game was played in the middle of the biggest homecoming weekend in the history of the UI.

The game itself was a dull one, with the Bengals winning 27-0. The only bright spot for the Vandals was a touchdown pass from fullback Bob Bailey to halfback Bob Miller in the second quarter. The Bengals scored three touchdowns and one field goal to lead the Vandals.

Just Chatter

It's Hikin' Time

It isn't that we're trying to lop off the subject of this walk Saturday, but once again we'll probably have to deal with the weather. After all, it was the Vandals against the weather.

The game was the Vandals against the weather. It was a cold, windy day with snow flurries swirling around. The Vandals were determined to go out and play football.

The school was closed on the last but by the club for the year. It was the Vandals against the weather. It was a cold, windy day with snow flurries swirling around. The Vandals were determined to go out and play football.
