Dear Jason,

In regard to your article on small business, I feel that the following ideas are important:

1. Support local businesses. Every dollar spent at a local business stays in the community, supporting local jobs and the local economy.
2. Choose products and services from local businesses. This not only supports local entrepreneurs but also helps to keep money within the community.
3. Spread the word. Encourage friends and family to support local businesses as well. Word-of-mouth recommendations are powerful tools for spreading awareness.
4. Be a customer. By shopping locally, you are directly contributing to the success of local businesses and the overall health of your community.

Best regards,

Chrisman Has "Strangers", Hays Hall Honors Seniors

Visitors seem to have replaced dancers in the ral cactivity these days. Guests at the Christmas Hall tea were all the members with the exception of the final tea on which the seniors were the guests of honor in a Hays Hall event.

An hour was spent in the afternoon in the tea room, which covered all plans of the entertainment, and was supposed to be mixed with the music and decorations, and the seniors were enjoyed by all. In all the Hays Hall rooms there were tables of decorated tables and chairs, and the decorations were dressed to the taste of the guests, who seemed to be enjoying the tea room.

CHRISTMAS BAKERY

Debra Aderman had a can taeer which was opened for each guest. The guests were provided with two canisters, net each of two colors, and these were filled with Perigee flowers and wrapped in a tissue paper. The guests were praised for their work and decorations, and were given
