Rat Hunt Next
For May Pette
Activity List

The Committee for "Activity Improvement," a newly formed group aimed at organizing certain campus activities, announced on Monday evening that it would begin a series of activities designed to increase student participation. Led by the president of the local chapter, the group is expected to work closely with campus leaders and other organizations to develop and promote the new activities.

"We have decided to take a stand against the runner-up," the president said. "Our mission is to encourage every student to participate in campus life and enjoy the benefits of a well-rounded education."

Rule Addition
Made by Joint Group Action

A new rule, "The Grabber Rule," was introduced by the Student Senate and approved by the Board of Trustees on Monday evening. The rule stipulates that any student caught "grabbing" another student without permission will be subject to disciplinary action.

"The rule is a necessary step in ensuring a safe and respectful campus environment," said the Senate president. "We want to make sure everyone feels welcome and comfortable at our school.

Tuition Charge
Yes Vote

The Idaho Legislature voted overwhelmingly to increase tuition by 5%, effective immediately. The increase is the first in five years and will affect all Idaho State University students.

Bed Pusher Caught
At Illegal Parking

A report this summer in Pulu-

ness when his bed was pushed into the street, saying, "It's hard to believe someone would do something like this.

Service Groups
Oak Project

A joint project, "Trees of the Future," has been launched by the Idaho State University Student Association and the Department of Forestry. The purpose is to plant trees throughout the state to help combat climate change.

Executive Approval
Granted

Pammy Raids

The ASU Student Senate granted funding for Pammy's Raids, a new student organization dedicated to raising money for local charities.

Liberals Canberra

Conservatives

The Liberal and Conservative clubs both met recently to plan their respective events.

Rampaging Co-ed Injuries

Sixteen men, one Volkswagen, seven cases of beer and a lot of broken glass were recently involved in a "Vietcong" on their way to a national convention in the Boise State Fort Lauderdale Trail.

Home Ec Crew
Offered New Study Choice

Freshmen house economics students are being offered a new curriculum that focuses on the needs of home economists.

Sixteen men, one Volkswagen, seven cases of beer and a lot of broken glass were recently involved in a "Vietcong" on their way to a national convention in the Boise State Fort Lauderdale Trail.

Tattoo Sets Special "Frost-Farewell"

Outfitting 800-pound

President McH. Mung-Bio, has announced a "Frost-Farewell" celebration for the "burning" of the Class of 1970 on Friday evening.

Bed Pusher Caught
At Illegal Parking

A report this summer in Pulu-

ness when his bed was pushed into the street, saying, "It's hard to believe someone would do something like this.

Service Groups
Oak Project

A joint project, "Trees of the Future," has been launched by the Idaho State University Student Association and the Department of Forestry. The purpose is to plant trees throughout the state to help combat climate change.

Executive Approval
Granted

Pammy Raids

The ASU Student Senate granted funding for Pammy's Raids, a new student organization dedicated to raising money for local charities.

Liberals Canberra

Conservatives

The Liberal and Conservative clubs both met recently to plan their respective events.

Rampaging Co-ed Injuries

Sixteen men, one Volkswagen, seven cases of beer and a lot of broken glass were recently involved in a "Vietcong" on their way to a national convention in the Boise State Fort Lauderdale Trail.

Home Ec Crew
Offered New Study Choice

Freshmen house economics students are being offered a new curriculum that focuses on the needs of home economists.

Sixteen men, one Volkswagen, seven cases of beer and a lot of broken glass were recently involved in a "Vietcong" on their way to a national convention in the Boise State Fort Lauderdale Trail.

Tattoo Sets Special "Frost-Farewell"

Outfitting 800-pound

President McH. Mung-Bio, has announced a "Frost-Farewell" celebration for the "burning" of the Class of 1970 on Friday evening.

ON TO LAUDERDALE: - 18 men and one Volkswagen disembarked from the campus on their way to a national convention in the Boise State Fort Lauderdale Trail.

Bed Pusher Caught
At Illegal Parking

A report this summer in Pal-

ness when his bed was pushed into the street, saying, "It's hard to believe someone would do something like this.

Service Groups
Oak Project

A joint project, "Trees of the Future," has been launched by the Idaho State University Student Association and the Department of Forestry. The purpose is to plant trees throughout the state to help combat climate change.

Executive Approval
Granted

Pammy Raids

The ASU Student Senate granted funding for Pammy's Raids, a new student organization dedicated to raising money for local charities.

Liberal Canberra

Conservatives

The Liberal and Conservative clubs both met recently to plan their respective events.

Rampaging Co-ed Injuries

Sixteen men, one Volkswagen, seven cases of beer and a lot of broken glass were recently involved in a "Vietcong" on their way to a national convention in the Boise State Fort Lauderdale Trail.

Home Ec Crew
Offered New Study Choice

Freshmen house economics students are being offered a new curriculum that focuses on the needs of home economists.

Sixteen men, one Volkswagen, seven cases of beer and a lot of broken glass were recently involved in a "Vietcong" on their way to a national convention in the Boise State Fort Lauderdale Trail.

Tattoo Sets Special "Frost-Farewell"

Outfitting 800-pound

President McH. Mung-Bio, has announced a "Frost-Farewell" celebration for the "burning" of the Class of 1970 on Friday evening.
nose in th' ground

By Spicee Thibodeaux

New SUB Addition To Install Beer Dispensaries Next Fall

In the fall semester of this year, a new addition to SUB is to be constructed that will expand the campus community's offerings. This new section will feature additional restrooms, a food court, and beer dispensaries.

The beer dispensaries will be a significant addition to the student experience, offering a variety of alcoholic beverages. This move aligns with national trends in higher education institutions, where the integration of social spaces and amenities has become increasingly popular.

However, the installation of beer dispensaries has sparked debate among students, faculty, and the administration. Some are enthusiastic about the prospect of having access to beer on campus, while others express concerns about potential implications on campus culture and student behavior.

The decision to include beer dispensaries in the new SUB addition was made after careful consideration of student feedback and input. The university aims to create a safe and enjoyable environment for all students, balancing the desire for social spaces with the need to maintain a supportive community.

Wild, Wild Winnim

By Liz Thompson

Spring brings a new wave of excitement to campus, and this year, the Winnim presents a special feature. The Winnim is a legendary figure in the history of the university, known for their mischievous nature and love of pranks.

The Winnim's exploits are legendary, and their presence on campus has become a beloved tradition. As spring approaches, the university community eagerly awaits the Winnim's arrival, ready to witness their inevitable tricks and pranks.

April 1 Hits House News, Reviewing Unusual Berverages

As we enter the new month, the House of Representatives is busy reviewing a range of unusual beverages. From exotic teas to innovative cocktails, the House is keen on exploring new and unique drinks to cater to the diverse tastes of its members.

These beverages include a herbal tea blend that is said to have calming properties, a vibrant cocktail made with seasonal fruits, and a special edition tea that boasts a blend of rare spices. Each beverage is highly anticipated, promising to offer a delightful refreshment for those in attendance at the House proceedings.

Rigged Elections! New York Times

If you’ve picked up a copy of the New York Times today, you may have noticed an article discussing rigged elections. The article highlights examples from various states, where voting irregularities and manipulation of the electoral system have raised concerns among the public.

The Times’ investigative report sheds light on the systemic issues that affect the integrity of the electoral process. It highlights cases of vote-buying, gerrymandering, and other forms of election manipulation that undermine democratic principles.

Conservatives Pro

The publication of the Conservatives Pro article has sparked renewed debate among campus members. The article advocates for a return to traditional values, criticizing contemporary trends and promoting a conservative approach to various issues.

The article has received mixed responses, with some students expressing support for its stance on issues such as social justice and economic policies, while others denounce its views as reactionary and harmful.

Messing

Debbie Cohn, a veteran of the government, has been appointed to the position of Secretary of Commerce. Cohn’s appointment has raised eyebrows, as her past experiences in the military have led to questions about her suitability for the role.

Some members of the security are concerned that Cohn’s background may not align with the needs of the commerce department. However, others commend her for her resilience and determination in the face of adversities.

Dear Jason

As the summer approaches, Jason is faced with a daunting decision: whether to accept a job offer in New York or to pursue a career in Arizona. The decision is not only about job opportunities but also about personal growth and life experiences.

Jason is torn between his love for the fast-paced city life and the tranquility of the desert. Both locations offer unique experiences that could shape his professional and personal journey.

Conclusion

The choice between New York and Arizona is a complex one, requiring careful consideration of personal values, career aspirations, and lifestyle preferences. Ultimately, it is about finding the right balance that aligns with Jason’s goals and passions.

By John Smith