Every Seat Sold
For Jan. Ballet

It's a bitSend when every seat in the house is sold before the show is announced, but that's precisely the situation for the Ballet Boise de Monte Carlo, coming to University Gymnasium Jan. 22.

To bring the show to Moscow, the Moscow Community Center has worked together with Ballet Boise and Washington State University can view the show on a couple of this year's best-attended activities, and Moscow and the community center's director, Fullman member of the business community, has arranged the event with the two Washington groups, to confirm it.

"We are really happy to bring something to the community that will appeal to all ages," Fullman said.

The show, featuring a variety of performances, is expected to have a capacity of about 600 people, and tickets are already selling quickly.

110 Attend
Stage Oratory
Last Evening

A variety of novels, poems, essays, and monologues were performed by 110 students from the University of Idaho at Moscow's annual Oratory Festival last evening.

The event, which is open to all students, provided an opportunity for participants to engage in imaginative and creative expression through the written and spoken word.

"The festival is a chance for students to showcase their writing and oratory skills," said Dr. John Smith, director of the festival.

The event featured a range of genres, from dramatic monologues to literary essays, and showcased the diversity of student voices.

Young Gop's
Accept Debate

The Young Republican Club held its annual debate with the Young Democratic Club on the campus of the University of Idaho. The debate was held in the Student Union Building's Ballroom.

The Republicans and Democrats debated a variety of topics, including economic policies, foreign affairs, and social issues.

The Republican candidate, a member of the Young Republican Club, argued for lower taxes and a smaller government. The Democratic candidate, a member of the Young Democratic Club, countered with proposals for increased government spending on social programs.

The debate was moderated by Dr. Jane Doe, a professor of political science at the University of Idaho.

44 Teams To Meet At Idaho
In Annual Debate Tourney

Eleven schools have indicated that they will compete in the annual Idaho State Debate Tournament, which will be held in the Student Union Building's Ballroom.

Teams from Boise State University, Idaho State University, University of Idaho, Washington State University, Whitworth College, Idaho College, Idaho State University, Eastern Washington University, Utah State University, and New Mexico State University have been invited to participate.

The tournament will feature a variety of debate formats, including affixes, resolutions, and policy debates.

The winners of the tournament will be announced at a ceremony to be held in the Student Union Building's Ballroom on Saturday, February 10.
U of I Republicans Accept Challenge

The Young Democrats, the liberal opposition to the Young Republicans, have acceded to the challenge of the latter group and have agreed to debate them in several issues.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats will discuss the issue of labor and the Young Republicans will discuss the issue of the constitution.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.

The Young Democrats believe that their method of debating is the most effective. The Young Republicans, on the other hand, believe that they will be defeated in every issue.
Campus Social Activity Slacks As Finals Near

The social scene is certainly near its peak, as evidenced by the many promotions and events being advertised over the next couple of weeks.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1

Rings ‘N Things

TUDOR-PETTITSON

Juniors, seniors, and graduates who may be looking for a summer job should consider applying for a position at Rings ‘N Things. The store is located in the University Center and is open Monday through Friday from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM. Applications are available at the store or online through the university career services website.

Boise-Cascade Presents Idaho Scholarships

The Boise-Cascade Corporation is offering scholarships to graduating seniors who are planning to attend the University of Idaho. The scholarships are available to students in a variety of fields, including business, engineering, and the sciences. Applications are due by June 15th and can be submitted online through the university’s financial aid website.

SUMMER TOUR OF EUROPE OFFERS CREDIT

There is a summer tour of Europe being offered by the University of Idaho. The tour will take students to a variety of cities in Europe, including Paris, London, and Rome. Students will have the opportunity to visit historic sites, attend cultural events, and experience the local cuisine. Applications are due by June 1st and can be submitted online through the university’s study abroad website.

Small Animal Laboratory is Home of Much Research

The small animal laboratory is home to a variety of research projects. Researchers are currently studying the effects of various medications on the behavior of laboratory animals. The lab is open Monday through Friday from 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM. For more information, please contact Dr. John B. Smith, PhD, in the animal science department.
Vandals Try For 2nd WSU Win Tonight

Team Spirit At Season High For Cross Line Rival Battle

By HERB HOLLLINGER

Argus Sports Editor

Idaho's high flying basketball attack will meet the pride of Pullman tonight at 7:15 in Bohler Gymnasium when the Vandals start the second half of the final opposing the Bearcats in the Pacific Northwest Conference.

The Vandals will try to break the Pullman attack and hold the ball so the Idaho defense can get into position to meet the Idaho attack. If the Pullman attack can be stopped, the Vandals will have a chance to win.

The Pullman attack is powered by Bob Goyette and Jerry Talbot. Bob Goyette is the leading scorer in the conference with 22 points per game. Jerry Talbot is the leading rebounder with 13 rebounds per game.

The Vandals will try to hold the ball so the Idaho defense can get into position to meet the Idaho attack. If the Pullman attack can be stopped, the Vandals will have a chance to win.

Idaho was the first to score tonight with 3 points against 0 for Pullman. The Vandals led 7-2 at the end of the first half.

The Vandals' defense was manned by forwards Doug Cook and Jack Clark and center Bob Goyette. The defense forced 6 turnovers and held Pullman to 10 points in the first half.

The Vandals outscored Pullman 18-10 in the first half.

Vandals Place Second In Ski Meet;
U. Washington Huskies Claim First

By LARRY MORRIS

Argus Sports Writer

The Vandals' ski team placed second in the Pac-8 ski meet held in Sun Valley, Idaho, this weekend. The Vandals lost to the Huskies of the University of Washington.

The Huskies scored 115 points in the meet, while the Vandals scored 123 points. The third-place finisher was the University of Oregon, with 137 points.

The Vandals' top skier was Bill Hostetler, who placed third in the slalom event. The Huskies' top skier was Bill Hostetler, who placed second in the slalom event.

The Vandals' ski team is coached by John Hostetler, who is also the head coach of the Vandals' basketball team. The Huskies' ski team is coached by Rick Hostetler, who is also the head coach of the Huskies' basketball team.

The Vandals' ski team is based at the Sun Valley Ski Resort, while the Huskies' ski team is based at the Seattle Ski Club.

The Vandals' ski team finished second in the overall team standings, behind the Huskies. The Vandals' ski team will compete in the Pac-8 championships next weekend in Sun Valley, Idaho.