Mike, the outstanding bubble-disk, asked his friend, "What shall we do today?"

"Let's go to the park," suggested Mike.

Mike thought for a moment and then said, "Well, then, let's go to the library."

The Biggest and best money saving event of the whole season is CREATIGNTON'S RED TAG REDUCTION SALE that starts THURSDAY, JUNE 1ST, 1922

Throughout the University, nearly every student who is currently taking a high school course is aware of the advantages of high school education. University of Idaho students are well aware of the superior education that high school offers, but they are also well aware of the often financially difficult situation associated with attending university. Thus, the University of Idaho is pleased to announce its annual RED TAG REDUCTION SALE, which is designed to provide University of Idaho students and their families with the financial assistance they need to make attending university a reality.

The sale will begin on Thursday, June 1st, and will continue through the weekend, with discounts on a wide variety of items. Students and their families can expect to find discounts on everything from textbooks and supplies to clothing and personal care items. The sale is open to all University of Idaho students and their families, and is expected to be a popular event.

“We are excited to offer this sale to our students and their families,” said Dr. Johnson, President of the University of Idaho. “Our goal is to make it easier for students to afford the education they deserve. We hope that this sale will help students to save money and reduce their financial burden.”

The sale will be held at the University of Idaho bookstore, located on the campus. Students and their families are encouraged to visit the bookstore during the sale to take advantage of the discounts.

The University of Idaho is committed to providing a quality education to all students who are passionate about learning and who have the potential to succeed. The RED TAG REDUCTION SALE is just one of the many ways we support our students and their families in achieving their educational goals. We hope that this sale will be a success, and we look forward to seeing many students and their families take advantage of this great opportunity.”

The University of Idaho wishes you happy-savings shopping during this sale, and encourages you to visit the bookstore and take advantage of the discounts.
