VOL. 70, NO. 6
UNIVERSITY OF IOWA, DES MOINES
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1966

Cover Capers

All-Campus Dance Heads Weekend of Activities

We hope all of you can join in for a fun filled weekend. The entire student body is looking forward to a great time.

Innocent Until Proven... 5

Shi McCaron, ASSU President

The President's message...

Perform to Present Concert

Johnny Mathis, popular pop and jitterbug, will be appearing in concert at the Student Union Gymnasium on Saturday, October 15. Tickets for the concert will be available at the Student Union Information Center in the basement of the student union. Tickets are

Vandal Boosters Charged With Insulting WSU Cougars

By Jon J. Jefferson

Associated Editor

Today Idaho Vandal boosters are charged with personally insulting four members of the Washington State football team containing "unidentified" instruments, according to an article in the WSIU student newspaper, the "Daily Evergreen.

The article's editor the Vandals' booster group contained "unidentified" instruments with regard to the ability of the WSIU student newspaper to "begin the impossible campaign," the Vandals booster group contained "unidentified" instruments with regard to the ability of the WSIU student newspaper to "begin the impossible campaign.

The Vandals booster group contained "unidentified" instruments with regard to the ability of the WSIU student newspaper to "begin the impossible campaign."

It is said there is evidence at the Vandals that the Vandals booster group contained "unidentified" instruments with regard to the ability of the WSIU student newspaper to "begin the impossible campaign."

The Vandals booster group contained "unidentified" instruments with regard to the ability of the WSIU student newspaper to "begin the impossible campaign."

The Vandals booster group contained "unidentified" instruments with regard to the ability of the WSIU student newspaper to "begin the impossible campaign."

The Vandals booster group contained "unidentified" instruments with regard to the ability of the WSIU student newspaper to "begin the impossible campaign."

You're not required to do anything... 5

Your request to the Vandals booster group contained "unidentified" instruments with regard to the ability of the WSIU student newspaper to "begin the impossible campaign."

We hope all of you can join in for a fun filled weekend. The entire student body is looking forward to a great time.

Innocent Until Proven... 5

Shi McCaron, ASSU President

The President's message...

Perform to Present Concert

Johnny Mathis, popular pop and jitterbug, will be appearing in concert at the Student Union Gymnasium on Saturday, October 15. Tickets for the concert will be available at the Student Union Information Center in the basement of the student union. Tickets are

Vandal Boosters Charged With Insulting WSU Cougars

By Jon J. Jefferson

Associated Editor

Today Idaho Vandal boosters are charged with personally insulting four members of the Washington State football team containing "unidentified" instruments, according to an article in the WSIU student newspaper, the "Daily Evergreen.

The article's editor the Vandals' booster group contained "unidentified" instruments with regard to the ability of the WSIU student newspaper to "begin the impossible campaign," the Vandals booster group contained "unidentified" instruments with regard to the ability of the WSIU student newspaper to "begin the impossible campaign.

The Vandals booster group contained "unidentified" instruments with regard to the ability of the WSIU student newspaper to "begin the impossible campaign."

It is said there is evidence at the Vandals that the Vandals booster group contained "unidentified" instruments with regard to the ability of the WSIU student newspaper to "begin the impossible campaign."

The Vandals booster group contained "unidentified" instruments with regard to the ability of the WSIU student newspaper to "begin the impossible campaign."

The Vandals booster group contained "unidentified" instruments with regard to the ability of the WSIU student newspaper to "begin the impossible campaign."

The Vandals booster group contained "unidentified" instruments with regard to the ability of the WSIU student newspaper to "begin the impossible campaign."

You're not required to do anything... 5

Your request to the Vandals booster group contained "unidentified" instruments with regard to the ability of the WSIU student newspaper to "begin the impossible campaign."

We hope all of you can join in for a fun filled weekend. The entire student body is looking forward to a great time.

Innocent Until Proven... 5

Shi McCaron, ASSU President

The President's message...

Perform to Present Concert

Johnny Mathis, popular pop and jitterbug, will be appearing in concert at the Student Union Gymnasium on Saturday, October 15. Tickets for the concert will be available at the Student Union Information Center in the basement of the student union. Tickets are

Vandal Boosters Charged With Insulting WSU Cougars

By Jon J. Jefferson

Associated Editor

Today Idaho Vandal boosters are charged with personally insulting four members of the Washington State football team containing "unidentified" instruments, according to an article in the WSIU student newspaper, the "Daily Evergreen.

The article's editor the Vandals' booster group contained "unidentified" instruments with regard to the ability of the WSIU student newspaper to "begin the impossible campaign," the Vandals booster group contained "unidentified" instruments with regard to the ability of the WSIU student newspaper to "begin the impossible campaign.

The Vandals booster group contained "unidentified" instruments with regard to the ability of the WSIU student newspaper to "begin the impossible campaign."

It is said there is evidence at the Vandals that the Vandals booster group contained "unidentified" instruments with regard to the ability of the WSIU student newspaper to "begin the impossible campaign."

The Vandals booster group contained "unidentified" instruments with regard to the ability of the WSIU student newspaper to "begin the impossible campaign."

The Vandals booster group contained "unidentified" instruments with regard to the ability of the WSIU student newspaper to "begin the impossible campaign."

The Vandals booster group contained "unidentified" instruments with regard to the ability of the WSIU student newspaper to "begin the impossible campaign."

You're not required to do anything... 5

Your request to the Vandals booster group contained "unidentified" instruments with regard to the ability of the WSIU student newspaper to "begin the impossible campaign."

We hope all of you can join in for a fun filled weekend. The entire student body is looking forward to a great time.

Innocent Until Proven... 5

Shi McCaron, ASSU President

The President's message...

Perform to Present Concert

Johnny Mathis, popular pop and jitterbug, will be appearing in concert at the Student Union Gymnasium on Saturday, October 15. Tickets for the concert will be available at the Student Union Information Center in the basement of the student union. Tickets are Letters to Jason

(Letters to the Editor will be published for $1 a word if they do not exceed 150 words in length. Letters must be signed and will be printed only if typed and submitted in typewritten form. Only the first 150 words will be counted. The.MenuItem}

Johnny Mathis

Cost Withheld

I want to know why the most important event at U. of I., the Winter Ball, is not mentioned. I believe it is a great event for the student body. What do the students do at the Winter Ball? It seems to me that the Winter Ball is the most important event of the year. If you are interested in the Winter Ball, you should attend it.

John Mathis

"Hand of power — but also cooperation"

Frosh: Visit Exec-Bord

The Student Executive Board (S.E.B.), the student government body of the University of Iowa, is made up of 10 members who serve for one year. The S.E.B. is responsible for the operation and management of the student government. The board is elected by the student body and meets regularly to discuss issues and make decisions.

The S.E.B. consists of the following members:

President: J. Myers
Vice President of Affairs: R. Williams
Vice President of Finance: T. White
Vice President of Student Life: B. Smith
Vice President of University Relations: L. Johnson
Chairperson of Committees: M. Lee Chairperson of Budget: S. Parker
Chairperson of Information: K. Brown
Chairperson of Student Activities: E. Martinez
Chairperson of Student Senate: A. Taylor

The S.E.B. meets weekly to discuss issues and make decisions.

UNIVERSAL OPPORTUNITY

The University of Iowa offers a wide range of opportunities to its students. Whether you are interested in academic or extracurricular activities, there is something for everyone at the University of Iowa.

Academic Opportunities:

- Bachelor’s degrees in over 100 majors
- Master’s and doctoral programs in a variety of fields
- Research opportunities in a wide range of disciplines
- Study abroad programs

Extracurricular Opportunities:

- Over 250 clubs and organizations
- Intramural and club sports
- Student government positions
- Leadership opportunities

The University of Iowa is committed to providing a world-class educational experience for its students. Whether you are interested in academics or extracurricular activities, you will find something to enjoy at the University of Iowa.
Houselmothers Become ‘Mom Away From Home’

Four new houselmothers graduated members and pledges of University sorority houses to serve as ‘Mom Away From Home’ for the 1964-1965 school year.

These four houselmothers have been selected to serve as ‘Mom Away From Home’ for the 1964-1965 school year. The selection process involved a rigorous evaluation of each candidate’s qualifications and dedication to the sorority’s mission.

The new houselmothers are: Alice Johnson, a senior in English; Mary Lee Smith, a junior in Psychology; Barbara White, a sophomore in Biology; and Elizabeth Brown, a junior in History.

Their responsibilities will include providing emotional support, guidance, and mentorship to the members of the sorority. They will serve as role models and inspire the younger members with their wisdom and experience.

The houselmothers will work closely with the sorority’s leaders to ensure the well-being and success of the members. They will be available to provide advice, answer questions, and help with any concerns or challenges the members may face.

The houselmothers’ presence will create a sense of familial support, allowing the members to feel more connected and comfortable in their new environment. Their dedication will contribute to a positive and nurturing atmosphere within the sorority.

Everyone is encouraged to welcome and support the new houselmothers. Their contributions will undoubtedly play a significant role in the growth and success of the sorority.

Idaho SUB Films Screening Room

The University of Iowa SUB Films Screening Room is now open for the 1964-1965 academic year. The room is located on the basement level of the SUB and is available for student use.

The Screening Room is equipped with state-of-the-art technology, including a large screen, comfortable seating, and high-quality sound system. It is ideal for screenings, presentations, and other events.

The Screening Room is open from Monday to Friday from 10 am to 8 pm, and on Saturday from 10 am to 6 pm. Students can reserve the room through the SUB’s reservations system.

The room is available for all types of events, including movie screenings, lectures, workshops, and more. It is a great space for students to collaborate, learn, and engage with each other.

The Screening Room is supported by the SUB’s programming budget, which is funded by student fees. It is a demonstration of the SUB’s commitment to providing resources and opportunities for students.

Students are encouraged to take advantage of this valuable resource and to use the Screening Room to enhance their educational and cultural experiences.

Idaho Represented in Queen Contest

Frosh

Frosh

Farah Slacks: next good looks are permanently pressed in... another reason why they look more attractive. And they wear longer.
Battle Of The Palouse

Maybe Vandal Vic Mann
Really Is Indestructible

When a dynamic cup shattered Vic Mann's left hand from behind a finger and then a second time as his fingers beyond repair a person would have thought that that the Idaho football's athletic career had ended at the age of eight.

Mann, a demasiado 21-pond quarterback, had a hot face.
He told a forest ranger who would not let him out after a fire because of "the background" and "the only handicap in your world.

He has survived a series of operations that put him in the same class as former Idaho and now Green Bay great Jerry Kramer.

It is the explosion that cast what was left of his hand and brought him a second time to a neighbor. The neighbor tried to tell the Idaho hospital in Keating, but the Idaho hospital was far out and after several arrived at the hospital in Keating in an emergency car rather than ride a stretcher.

Playing football to the coach grade he left on his left wrist and hand. At a headquarters military base Football clinic under Dr. M. B. (Phil) Staley. and
C. E. (Phil) Staley.

After three operations with the first a non-invasive one and the second to put his fingers back to his fingers on the problem. He is enjoying the holidays in Idaho and plans to reach and touch the ball.

Right now his biggest job is the University of Idaho's quarterback.

Steve Garmon Wins'
65 Breshears Award

Steve Garmon, senior quarterback at Idaho, won the 1965 Breshears Award.

For many years the University of Idaho has had a reputation among sportswriters and broadcasters for producing outstanding players and professional talent.

However, it isn't often that this university, or any other for that matter, can lay claim to a pro player who has already accumulated most titles and records to most college athletes ever hopes to hold. The University of Idaho has had such an athletic — Steve Garmon.

At the University of Idaho,
Steve Garmon, a 6-3, 225-pound quarterback, was a three year starter. He led the Vandals to three bowl games and ended up as a three-year
All-American and
All-Pacific.

Steve Garmon was awarded the Breshears Award at the University of Idaho baseball games on Thursday evening.

The Breshears Award is given annually to the outstanding football player in the Pacific coast.

The award is presented by the Idaho State Association of Sportswriters and broadcasters.

Steve Garmon is a three year starter and
a two-year
All-American,

He led the Vandals
to three bowl games
and ended up as an
All-Regional
player.

Steve Garmon is a three year starter and
a two-year
All-American,.

He led the Vandals
to three bowl games
and ended up as a
three-year
All-Regional
player.

Steve Garmon is a three year starter and
a two-year
All-American,.

He led the Vandals
to three bowl games
and ended up as a
three-year
All-Regional
player.

Steve Garmon is a three year starter and
a two-year
All-American,.

He led the Vandals
to three bowl games
and ended up as a
three-year
All-Regional
player.