New Attitudes Needed, Borah Speaker Says

The Borah speaker, John Smith, said yesterday that new attitudes are needed if the state is to move forward.

"We need to change our attitudes and our ways of thinking," he said. "We need to be more open-minded and willing to try new things."

Smith said that the state has been too slow to adapt to new ideas and technologies. "We need to be more proactive and less reactive," he said.

Smith's comments were made during the Borah speaker's address to the state legislature. The address was broadcast live on statewide television.

"The state needs to be more innovative and less conservative," he said. "We need to be more willing to take risks and try new things."

Many Aspects Of Idaho’s Jubilant Victory Shown

HALF-TIME HEROES—The University of Idaho band played fight music as the Vandals wel- loped WSU 24-13. The band performed on the sideline between punts following activities on the field. The band performed during the halftime of the game.

"BUTCH HAS SABBY"—What fans promised to bavk against the Cougars during the game Saturday. Poor fans, kids shown are Owen Anderson, Gamma Phi; Ron Pafford, Nancy Shelman, D.D.; Bob Haydon, Gamma Phi, Margie Brunck, Pi Phi; and Judy Baller, Beta. Also shown are the University golf band.

It Was A Great Day For The Vandals

It was a great day—the stands were crammed, the cheerleaders were enthusiastic, the weather was beautiful—and excitement was rampant. Football fans sought each other for places to sit. Butch appeared only to revel and return to his cup as things went from bad to worse for the Cougars. The Vandals were in great shape as they fought the annual Battle of the Palouse, spectators were so enthusiastic that they ripped the band's tongues and everyone was enthusiastic to describe the play.

However, there were moments, as there are in most any game, when coaches and fans alike were nearly frozen as the struggle for the ball and more yards continued. Lintners pressed in front of their units so the scores were closer and tension mounted.

But we won, for the first time in 40 years Idaho won the annual struggle for two years in a row. Possibly the Vandals earned Dad’s Day Weekend for WSU but it was worth it as we walked off with a victory 17 to 13.

Saturday evening was a time for celebration, meeting old friends, of congratulations. There is one thing more for which we could hope—that next year the Vandals win again. A win in 1966 would be the first in history that Idaho has ever been three times in a row.

WHO’S NEXT—Vandals football fans may ask as they await their turn to enter the rink.
