For the second time this week, I'm offering you the chance to see...
21, PARDNER — WELL, PROVE IT

A mispronunciation concerning the type of identification card a student needs at the Idaho State Police, which has been straightened out. But the question of what's proof of legal age and whether it's still relevant.

A question of legal age actually is a question of positive identification, and so the Idaho State Police has decided to make things clear. If you are in need of a positive identification, or if you are not sure what documents or identification are required, contact the Idaho State Police office immediately.

The Golden Fleece
By Jason

Glory 'Blazers' Others advise that there is no need for a positive identification, and that you can simply provide a valid driver's license or a passport.

The ASU Executive Board has de-decided informally to file a complaint for search and seizure of the radio sta-

The campus has turned from a duty-free zone to a. frustrated zone because of the new regulations. As a result, the radios have been seized and are now being held by the University Police.

Looking to the future, a group of students is planning to file a lawsuit against the University of Idaho and the Idaho State Police, claiming that the new regulations are unconstitutional.

The future of this University will be the prime concern in the next session of the Legislature. It is

In summary, the laws and rules that apply to the campus should be revised to allow for a more open environment.

Fire to Keep Cool? Yup!

It's raining furiously and keeping a building cool. It's possible to keep cool in the rain, but it's not easy.

The rain is providing a welcome
break from the heat.

PCs of the Future Corps members also have been offered the chance to

The ASU Executive Board has decided informally to file a complaint
for search and seizure of the radio stadards, and will do so formally on Tuesday, July 26, if the State Police does not agree to reissue the radios.

New regulations have been put in place in the past two years, and it appears that some students feel that it is time to re-examine the future of the campus.

The campus has turned from a
duty-free zone to a. frustrated zone
because of the new regulations. As
a result, the radios have been seized
and are now being held by the University Police.

Looking to the future, a group of
students is planning to file a lawsuit
against the University of Idaho and the Idaho State Police, claiming that the
new regulations are unconstitutional.

The future of this University will
be the prime concern in the next session of the Legislature. It is

In summary, the laws and rules that apply to
the campus should be revised to
allow for a more open environment.

Fire to Keep Cool? Yup!

It's raining furiously and keeping a building cool. It's possible to keep
cool in the rain, but it's not easy.

The rain is providing a welcome
break from the heat.

PCs of the Future Corps members also
have been offered the chance to

The ASU Executive Board has decided informally to file a complaint
for search and seizure of the radio stadards, and will do so formally on Tuesday, July 26, if the State Police
does not agree to reissue the radios.

New regulations have been put in
place in the past two years, and it appears that some students feel that it is time to re-examine the future of the campus.

The campus has turned from a
duty-free zone to a. frustrated zone
because of the new regulations. As
a result, the radios have been seized
and are now being held by the University Police.

Looking to the future, a group of
students is planning to file a lawsuit
against the University of Idaho and the Idaho State Police, claiming that the
new regulations are unconstitutional.

The future of this University will
be the prime concern in the next session of the Legislature. It is

In summary, the laws and rules that apply to
the campus should be revised to
allow for a more open environment.

Fire to Keep Cool? Yup!

It's raining furiously and keeping a
building cool. It's possible to keep
cool in the rain, but it's not easy.

The rain is providing a welcome
break from the heat.

PCs of the Future Corps members also
have been offered the chance to

The ASU Executive Board has decided informally to file a complaint
for search and seizure of the radio sta-

The campus has turned from a
duty-free zone to a. frustrated zone
because of the new regulations. As
a result, the radios have been seized
and are now being held by the University Police.

Looking to the future, a group of
students is planning to file a lawsuit
against the University of Idaho and the
Idaho State Police, claiming that the new regulations are unconstitutional.

The future of this University will
be the prime concern in the next session of the Legislature. It is

In summary, the laws and rules that apply to
the campus should be revised to
allow for a more open environment.

Fire to Keep Cool? Yup!

It's raining furiously and keeping a
building cool. It's possible to keep
cool in the rain, but it's not easy.

The rain is providing a welcome
break from the heat.

PCs of the Future Corps members also
have been offered the chance to

The ASU Executive Board has decided informally to file a complaint
for search and seizure of the radio sta-

The campus has turned from a
duty-free zone to a. frustrated zone
because of the new regulations. As
a result, the radios have been seized
and are now being held by the University Police.

Looking to the future, a group of
students is planning to file a lawsuit
against the University of Idaho and the Idaho State Police, claiming that the
new regulations are unconstitutional.

The future of this University will
be the prime concern in the next session of the Legislature. It is

In summary, the laws and rules that apply to
the campus should be revised to
allow for a more open environment.

Fire to Keep Cool? Yup!

It's raining furiously and keeping a
building cool. It's possible to keep
cool in the rain, but it's not easy.

The rain is providing a welcome
break from the heat.

PCs of the Future Corps members also
have been offered the chance to

The ASU Executive Board has decided informally to file a complaint
for search and seizure of the radio sta-

The campus has turned from a
duty-free zone to a. frustrated zone
because of the new regulations. As
a result, the radios have been seized
and are now being held by the University Police.

Looking to the future, a group of
students is planning to file a lawsuit
against the University of Idaho and the Idaho State Police, claiming that the new regulations are unconstitutional.

The future of this University will
be the prime concern in the next session of the Legislature. It is

In summary, the laws and rules that apply to
the campus should be revised to
allow for a more open environment.

Fire to Keep Cool? Yup!

It's raining furiously and keeping a
building cool. It's possible to keep
cool in the rain, but it's not easy.

The rain is providing a welcome
break from the heat.

PCs of the Future Corps members also
have been offered the chance to

The ASU Executive Board has decided informally to file a complaint
for search and seizure of the radio sta-

The campus has turned from a
duty-free zone to a. frustrated zone
because of the new regulations. As
a result, the radios have been seized
and are now being held by the University Police.

Looking to the future, a group of
students is planning to file a lawsuit
against the University of Idaho and the Idaho State Police, claiming that the new regulations are unconstitutional.

The future of this University will
be the prime concern in the next session of the Legislature. It is

In summary, the laws and rules that apply to
the campus should be revised to
allow for a more open environment.
More Houses Elect; Conclude Activities

On the 20th, the Board of Directors met to elect new officers and to adjourn for the next term. The new officers elected were: President, Charles E. A. Johnson; Vice President, John W. G. Smith; Secretary, Alphonse P. Bouchard; and Treasurer, Charles W. H. H. Johnson. The meeting concluded with the singing of the University song, "Till We Meet Again."
Four Seniors To Lead Idaho Against WSU

The Idaho Vandals baseball team will have everything to gain and nothing to lose when they host the WCU Cougars today and tomorrow. The Vandals are in fourth place in the Northern Division with a 4- record and need a winning weekend to be assured of Washington State's third place with a 6-4 pair. A pair of victories would bring the Vandals into a tie for third place.

The Friday game will be played in Moscow at 7 pm with Mike Gaten standing at the plate for the Vandals. The Saturday double will be at the McNary Field, and Coach Anderson will get with veteran Dave Smith at 3 p.m. during the mid-afternoon.

Four Play Led

Four Vandals will play their last home game for Idaho today, and all four, who are seniors, will be represented on the Terry Hardesty Award, which will be presented to Mike Shaw, who has been the star of the team this year. The four are Starke, who is the leading pitcher; Chrisman, and of State. They will be the best singles hitter in the team; Dain, who is the top leader; and Jordan, who is the best fielder.

The Vandals, who hit better than the opponent through the series, are believed to be hitting better in the late series against Washington State.

Coach Wayne Anderson, who is the leader in the series against Washington State, says that the Vandals are having a good season, and he is sure that they will be the best singles hitter in the team. The Vandals have played a good game of defense, and they have made it possible for them to win the series.

The Vandals will be playing their last home game for Idaho this weekend, and they will be playing against a team that is not expected to be able to keep up with the Vandals. The Vandals have played a good game of defense, and they have made it possible for them to win the series.

The Vandals will be playing their last home game for Idaho this weekend, and they will be playing against a team that is not expected to be able to keep up with the Vandals. The Vandals have played a good game of defense, and they have made it possible for them to win the series.

The Vandals will be playing their last home game for Idaho this weekend, and they will be playing against a team that is not expected to be able to keep up with the Vandals. The Vandals have played a good game of defense, and they have made it possible for them to win the series.

The Vandals will be playing their last home game for Idaho this weekend, and they will be playing against a team that is not expected to be able to keep up with the Vandals. The Vandals have played a good game of defense, and they have made it possible for them to win the series.

The Vandals will be playing their last home game for Idaho this weekend, and they will be playing against a team that is not expected to be able to keep up with the Vandals. The Vandals have played a good game of defense, and they have made it possible for them to win the series.