Helen Brouwer, a graduate of Idaho State College, has been appointed dean of women at the University of Idaho in Moscow. She succeeds Dr. Cyril R. Yeager, who has accepted the position of director of the Settlement House in New York City, and will take up her duties at Moscow on Jan. 1, 1926.

Mrs. Brouwer was born in Europe, but has spent the greater part of her life in the United States, and in the East. She received her higher education at the University of Minnesota, and has been active in the work of women's organizations ever since.

She is a member of the American Association of University Women, the National Council of Women, and the Women's Auxiliary of the American Civil War. She has been active in the work of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, and is a director of the National Council of Women's Organization of America.

Mrs. Brouwer has been a successful woman worker in the East, and has been active in the work of women's organizations in that part of the country. She has long been a member of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, and has been active in the work of the National Council of Women.
