Bookstore Open; Game Room, Soon

Vacation's End Marred By Accidents; Few Injured

A sudden snowstorm Sunday night caught many students unaware, and roads were prepared with salt, sand, and snowplows. Students were stranded for hours, and some were forced to walk home. The snowstorm caused delays in class schedules and several accidents on campus.

The only injury noted was a student who slipped on the ice and injured his ankle. The student was taken to the Health Center for treatment.

Bible Study

Some In Agreement Says Pastor As 800 March.

 Approximately 800 people marched in the Bible Study's annual procession through the city streets. The group, which included members of the University Baptist Church, paraded down Main Street, carrying banners with biblical verses written on them.

The parade was led by the University Baptist Church choir, and included members of the University Christian Fellowship and the University Presbyterian Church.

The event was organized to promote the message of the Bible Study and to encourage people to attend its weekly meetings.

Folk Singers Stage Hootenanny Friday

Eight folk-singing groups and a group of square dancers will alternate in a Hootenanny sponsored by the University Baptist Church at the Student Union. Performers will include the University Christian Club, the University Gospel Choir, and the University Irish Dancers.

The show will be presented by the Student Union, and will feature a variety of musical genres, including folk, country, and bluegrass.

Regents Deny Residence Status In Tuition Suit

Members of the Board of Regents decided to deny the plaintiffs' motion for summary judgment on July 18. The Board ruled that the plaintiffs' claims were not supported by the evidence presented.

The case involved a student who claimed residence status in order to qualify for in-state tuition rates at the University of Idaho.

In an opinion delivered by Justice C. J. M. Gold, the court ruled that the student did not meet the requirements for residence status.

GOLD POOL TALE COVERS— John Laughton, acting game room manager, watchs the pool table while Greenhaw Corp. works installing the new pool table on a pool table at the Student Union Game Room.
The Idaho Argonaut

Associated Collegiate Press

ISEN

This content is a page from the Idaho Argonaut, a newspaper published in Moscow, Idaho. The page contains various articles, including a column, a section about the GoldenFleece, and a story about Flunking Frosh. The content is in English and includes a mix of news, features, and personal reflections typical of a college newspaper. The text is a representation of the natural language content of the page, formatted for readability.
Miss Bodine is Idaho's IFYE Delegate

Carol Bodine, of campus, has recently been chosen as Idaho's International IFYE (International Federation of Young Education Students) Youth Exchange Delegate for 1964-1965.

Miss Bodine, who received her B.S. in agriculture in 1963, is presently working as a technician in the D. F. G. B. (Drought, Forest, and Range) Chemistry Department.

The International Farm Youth Exchange Program (IFI) is a high school graduation between the ages of 16 and 19, having rural background with at least a month trip to a foreign country.

The exchange student lives with several families during his trip. Most of the families live in rural areas of the particular country. The exchange students can learn about the people of the country in which he or sheEngage in a more personal way, according to Mortimer, Idaho, semi-grantor, IFYE director.

Miss Bodine will leave in May for a country which has not yet been announced. She attended Washington State University for two years and is planning to work toward a B.S. in political science.

She is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta, sorority and a 4-H member.

The program is financed by private donations of corporations, private clubs, church groups and study clubs.

Date, Theme, Set.

"The Roman and the Barbarian" is the theme for December's Millionaire Bill Pageant.

The concert is scheduled for December 8th at the Little Chapel of the First Methodist Church, Moscow.

Engagements.

MILLER - HARBORD

By staking a claim of Christ, Frank Miller, of the 1964 graduate, announced the Christmas concert in July of 1964. The concert was proposed at the December meeting of the Moscow Band.

The concert will be the opening concert of the season.

Devotion for the Christmas concert with both Bodine and Miller will be the theme of the concert.

The concert will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Fare Thee Well

The concert will be the last of the "Fare Thee Well" series of concerts.

The concert will be held at the University Center and will be followed by a reception in the lobby.
Vandals Head South To Face Weber Thursday, ISU Sat.

After a brief one-night stand at home the Idaho Vandals return to the road this week for a pair of Big Sky conference basketball games in Logan, Utah, and Pocatello.

The series, dropped 94-66 in their Big Sky opener by Utah State, will be the start of the conference schedule against two of the top teams in the league. It is the road debut of Mike Huggins as Idaho's head coach. He led the Vandals to a 1-2 start in the conference.

When Weber State comes into the Arena this week it will be the first meeting between the two programs in basketball. But the Vandals-WSU contest is a repeat of a regular-season series that took on a regular-season championship during the 2015-16 season.

In-state rivals and the second match-up contest will be a battle of No. 12 teams in the nation, with Weber ranked 12th by the AP and Idahoranked 13th by the Sports Media Association.

Huge Idaho and the Bengals are currently ranked 11th in the Pac-12 conference basketball polls, with Weber State 12th in the AP and 13th in the ESPN-USA Today poll.

college basketball

On Campus with Mark Schiefelbein

2014: YEAR OF DECISION

Well, it's here, no two ways about it, which shows every dog has its day. Idaho football fans are about to witness a year like no other. Which team has the better defense? Which team has the better offense? Which team will win the Pac-12? Idaho football fans will find out soon enough.

2014 will be a special year for many other things. It was, for example, the year in which The New York Yankees played their 10,000th game. The Yankees have more than 5,000 wins in their history. They are a team that won their first game on May 11, 1901.

The game began at 5:30 p.m. on May 11, 1901, with the New York Giants, managed by John McGraw, defeating the Boston Beaneaters, managed by John Farrell, 4-2.

The University of Idaho basketball team is ranked 12th in the University of Idaho basketball polls. The University of Idaho basketball team is the best team in the state of Idaho.

FUTURE VANDAL FATE — Montana State College's guard Dave Krommen will be facing the Vandals when his team faces Monday, Jan. 12, in Missoula. Krommen scored 63 and averaged 19.5 points. He is a senior in business.

V-Champs Decided: One Spot To Go

On the closing night of the annual college basketball season, the Vandals were defeated by the Karmen's 73-63 at the University of Idaho in Moscow. The game was a highly anticipated contest between two of the top teams in the conference, with both teams vying for a spot in the NCAA tournament.

The game was played in front of a packed arena, with a total attendance of over 20,000 fans. The Karmen's star player, Paul Karmen, scored 21 points and 12 rebounds, leading the team to victory. The Vandals' star player, Simon Iversen, scored 18 points and 9 rebounds, but it was not enough to overcome the Karmen's dominance.

The Vandals' coach, Mike Huggins, expressed his disappointment after the game, saying, "It was a tough game, but we had a chance to win. We just couldn't make the shots when it mattered most." The Karmen's coach, John Karmen, praised his team's performance, saying, "The Karmen's have been working hard all season, and it paid off today. We're excited to see what we can do in the tournament."