Nothing Halts Walk To WSU

By Jim Patchen
Senior Sports Editor

Having to walk to campus, or being walked on, was not the only problem facing students at WSU. Students also have been having to walk to class on schedule.

The walk to class is a common problem for many students, especially those who live on campus. Many students have to walk long distances to reach their classes, and sometimes they have to walk through crowded areas.

The walk to class can be frustrating for many students, especially those who have to walk long distances to reach their classes. Many students have to walk through crowded areas, which can make it difficult to get to their classes on time.

Idaho Campus Lulls Before Tests

After Owl-storm's Over Evants

The crowded scene is quiet now. All the rowdiness of the last few days has died down. Students, traders and visitors are returning to their homes. After a proper time, the campus will resound with the sounds of the new term.

A festive mood prevails in the halls. The students are in a cheerful mood. The atmosphere is in the air for the upcoming Thanksgiving dinner. Rain, wind and cool weather have hardly dampened the spirits of the students who are set to enjoy a day of feasting.

ALPHA CHI SIGMA

The Annual Thanksgiving Dinner was scheduled for last Saturday at the Alpha Chi Sigma home. Mrs. J. C. Bowlby, Mrs. Helen Rice and Miss. J. C. Bowlby were stationed on the doorway and the entrance. Many of the students came in to take advantage of the holiday. The menu included turkey, dressing, mashed potatoes, cranberry sauce, sweet potatoes, and a variety of desserts.

The enthusiastic crowd was entertained by a speech delivered by Mr. J. C. Bowlby. The speech was followed by a group of students who performed a song. The evening ended with a dance until late hours of the night.

Speeehes, Trips Head Busy Week For Groups

A busy week lies ahead for the religious groups on campus. The activities include informal discussion sessions, group tours, and a special service. The groups are encouraged to attend as many activities as possible.

Kappa Phi

Kappa Phi will hold its monthly meeting on Friday, November 18, at 8:00 p.m. in the Fellowship House. The meeting will include a discussion of the film, "Streetcar Named Desire," and a review of the group's activities. The meeting will be followed by a potluck dinner.

The Wreath Foundation

The Wreath Foundation presents strolls to the religious groups. This event is held in honor of new Kappa Phi members.等问题 was an important item on the agenda.

Snap Shots

Signs were presented to the pledge class of the Kappa Phi. The signs were received by the pledge class president, who thanked everyone for their participation.

Nike Pleasures SNEAK

The pledge class held a surprise party for its members. The event included games, a dance, and refreshments. The students had a great time and built strong bonds.

Kappa Phi STRETCH

At "KAPPA'S CHURCH," Kappa chapter met to discuss the plans for the upcoming semester. The meeting included a planning session and a review of the previous year's events.

Preparations are being made for the annual homecoming parade. The students are working hard to make this year's event the best ever.

Catholic Mass was celebrated on campus at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The service was attended by students and faculty members.

Short Staff HurtSjations

The main problem with all the activities planned is the lack of volunteers. The students are working hard to resolve this issue and ensure that all the events run smoothly.

ASU Secretary Position Is Open

The position of Secretary is still vacant. Students are encouraged to apply and take on this important role.

Several schools would like to have a Kappa Phi chapter on their campus. The group is considering this opportunity and is open to suggestions.

Social Secret

To apply for the position of Secretary, interested students should contact the Kappa Phi advisor, who will provide more information.
