Junior Debbie Muth crowned queen of 1970 Vandal tournament

The Idaho Argonaut
The University of Idaho, Moscow, Idaho
Vol. 74, No. 12
Friday, October 23, 1970

By Icons Satoria
Program Editor

Debbie Muth, 19-year-old Junior, will reign over the HIBONI (Huskies of Idaho) tournament of the Vandal. Debbie, a member of the University of Idaho Homing Crew, was crowned queen on Oct. 19.

"I don't know what to say, but thanks a lot," a beaming Debbie said after the grand ceremony.

Hilda Lovelace, queen of last year's tournament, was crowned queen of the 1970 Vandal. Debbie's friend, Billy Sutton, was awarded the first runner-up crown.

The 1970 tournament is being held on the Moscow Campus and sponsored by the HIBONI. The tournament will run through all the weekend and encompass the Vanderbilt Shadow Tournament and the Idahology tournament.

The Vandal tournament is the second tournament held on the Moscow Campus and sponsored by the HIBONI. The tournament will run through all the weekend and encompass the Vanderbilt Shadow Tournament and the Idahology tournament.

The tournament will be held on the Moscow Campus and sponsored by the HIBONI. The tournament will run through all the weekend and encompass the Vanderbilt Shadow Tournament and the Idahology tournament.

The tournament will be held on the Moscow Campus and sponsored by the HIBONI. The tournament will run through all the weekend and encompass the Vanderbilt Shadow Tournament and the Idahology tournament.

The tournament will be held on the Moscow Campus and sponsored by the HIBONI. The tournament will run through all the weekend and encompass the Vanderbilt Shadow Tournament and the Idahology tournament.
Beer licenses considered

By Jim 41

A delay in implementing a provision in the city of Moscow, exchanged marijuana-applications for four beer licenses and their folow fans in nearly two hours of debate at the City Council meeting Monday night.

Councilor Bill Murray proposed a amendment that would have limited the number of licenses to four, but the amendment was defeated.

The delay in deciding how to follow fans in the city has been a concern for many years, but the debate over the number of licenses has been a sticking point in the past.

The councilmen argued about the potential effects of having too few or too many licenses.

The decision to delay the applications will follow the decision on the number of licenses to be approved.

Councilor Bill Murray proposed a amendment that would have limited the number of licenses to four, but the amendment was defeated.

The delay in deciding how to follow fans in the city has been a concern for many years, but the debate over the number of licenses has been a sticking point in the past.

The councilmen argued about the potential effects of having too few or too many licenses.

The decision to delay the applications will follow the decision on the number of licenses to be approved.
University symbol redesigned

By Janet Rugg Managing Editor

A new symbol for the University of Idaho, with its refined and stylized appearance, has been created by Don Conover, a graphic consultant to the university.

"It's an exciting thing to me to finally see the public through designs what the university really is," said Janne, head of university publications, said it would be an "artistic rendering" of a book, a building, a retort and a globe, with a new symbolism, he explained.

New representation

The symbol is the center of the university's red line of higher education in the state. It has been developed to represent the many different elements that make up the university.

The design features a red line and a black line, with the university's name in white letters. The design is intended to be easily recognizable and memorable.

The symbol was chosen because it is simple, yet effective. The design is intended to be used on all university publications and materials.

Meet At The

RATHAUS

Pizza Shoppe

after the "Game" for a tasty Jumbo Sandwich.

BEAT U. C. L. A.

The next move is up to you!

It's your move!

If you would rather live in Phoenix, San Francisco, Seattle, Denver, Portland, Miami, or any other city after graduation—Northwestern Mutual Life has an internship program for juniors and seniors, right here in Moscow, that will get you ready for a professional sales career in the place you've always wanted to be.

The next move is up to you! Call David M. Trail, C.L.U. at 882-7711 for all details. Give your future a place to go!

NORTHWESTERN MUTUAL LIFE MILWAUKEE—WE'RE THE WORLD'S LARGEST COMPANY SPECIALIZING IN INDIVIDUAL LIFE INSURANCE.

Home Office Interviews Nov. 13, 1970

Sign Up at Placement Office

Ron's Country Kitchen

RESTAURANT

112 E. 3rd Street

Welcome's You For exhibit Homecoming Weekend

OPEN FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

7:00 A.M. to 12:30 A.M.

FREE MUM CORSAGE

GIVEN TO MOTHERS VISITING US FOR DINNER

We Have 50 Corsages

To Give Away—

So Come Early

PHONE 882-9575

Effective Monday, Oct. 26

Open Daily 7 p.m. - 9 p.m.

CLOSED SUNDAYS
By Douglas Fair

If you’ve ever taken sides in a discussion on the Vietnam war or on the question of law and order in our country, then you should see the drama department production of "Billy Budd." This afternoon and tonight at the University of Washington.

The play, adapted from the novel by Herman Melville, takes place in the British Royal Navy during the Napoleonic War and concerns the life and death of a ship’s youngest seaman.

The year was 1798. Washington, the man, was fighting in the French Revolutionary War. The U.S. had declared war on that country, and the British had declared war on us.

Some say it was the war between the two countries, others say it was the war for freedom. Still others say it was the war of 1812, which ended in the Peace of Ghent. But either way, it was a war that brought about the birth of the United States of America.

The play is about a man who was accused of mutiny and then hanged. The man was Captain Budd, and the play is about his life and the trials he went through.

The play opens with a scene of the ship’s captain, Mr. Claggart, standing on the deck of the ship and looking out to sea. He is thinking about the war and the trials that the sailors have been through.

The play then goes on to show the life of the ship’s youngest seaman, Jack. Jack is a young man who is full of enthusiasm and energy. He wants to be a part of the war and to help his country.

But Jack’s enthusiasm is met with a stern warning from the ship’s captain. Claggart tells Jack that he must remain on the ship and not try to join the war. Jack is disappointed, but he obeys the captain’s orders.

The play then goes on to show the trials of the ship’s crew. The sailors are working long hours and are working in some of the toughest conditions. They are often hungry and have little to eat.

The play ends with a scene of Jack being hanged. He is standing on the deck of the ship and looking out to sea. He is thinking about the war and the trials that he has gone through.

The play is a powerful reminder of the trials that the sailors went through during the war. It is a story of courage, determination, and sacrifice.

The play is sure to be a hit with audiences of all ages. It is a story that will be remembered for years to come.

The play is being performed by the University of Washington’s drama department. The performances are at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday, and at 2 p.m. on Sunday. The performance is free and open to the public.
Students take two wheels

By Mike Kick
Associated Television

Bicycle transportation? Yes—Ambrose! Get your exercise. easy to get—Yes, yes.

But why?—At the University of Idaho, transportation alternatives are more than a matter of choice—they have been required for years. Every student is issued a bike and must use it to commute to and from campus.

"Students can be seen "creating" the campus, putting bills of Moscow commerce. Glimpses of this "community" between open and the bike helmets and "pushing" and "riding" in the islands of the streets. Ignoring the supreme focusing of fast cars, the students ride their own two-wheelers around the city."

Nightline to provide much help

Nightline, a telephone service to aid bicycle riders in trouble, is being organized by a group of interested citizens. Students, faculty and community members who work together are planning to start Nightline on August 15th.

"Persons from the Mental Health Association, ASUI, the police and other interested groups are needed to help organize the first of the three-part telephone service, according to Kent Davis." (One part or more plates will be required.)

The first type of service which Nightline plans to provide is information about all kinds of public services, including "urgent government offices" and "first aid." The second part of the service will involve reporting any "suspicious" persons on the campus. The third and final part will be the "last resort" help to get students around.

Nightline will also provide a "free service." Probable weekend will be of all types from knee-busters to chest and drugstore. "This service is for the benefit of students, faculty and community members who work together are planning to start Nightline on August 15th.

"Persons from the Mental Health Association, ASUI, the police and other interested groups are needed to help organize the first of the three-part telephone service, according to Kent Davis."

The first type of service which Nightline plans to provide is information about all kinds of public services, including "urgent government offices" and "first aid." The second part of the service will involve reporting any "suspicious" persons on the campus. The third and final part will be the "last resort" help to get students around.

Nightline will also provide a "free service." Probable weekend will be of all types from knee-busters to chest and drugstore. "This service is for the benefit of students, faculty and community members who work together are planning to start Nightline on August 15th." (One part or more plates will be required.)

"Persons from the Mental Health Association, ASUI, the police and other interested groups are needed to help organize the first of the three-part telephone service, according to Kent Davis."

The first type of service which Nightline plans to provide is information about all kinds of public services, including "urgent government offices" and "first aid." The second part of the service will involve reporting any "suspicious" persons on the campus. The third and final part will be the "last resort" help to get students around.

Nightline will also provide a "free service." Probable weekend will be of all types from knee-busters to chest and drugstore. "This service is for the benefit of students, faculty and community members who work together are planning to start Nightline on August 15th."

"Persons from the Mental Health Association, ASUI, the police and other interested groups are needed to help organize the first of the three-part telephone service, according to Kent Davis."

The first type of service which Nightline plans to provide is information about all kinds of public services, including "urgent government offices" and "first aid." The second part of the service will involve reporting any "suspicious" persons on the campus. The third and final part will be the "last resort" help to get students around.

Nightline will also provide a "free service." Probable weekend will be of all types from knee-busters to chest and drugstore. "This service is for the benefit of students, faculty and community members who work together are planning to start Nightline on August 15th."

"Persons from the Mental Health Association, ASUI, the police and other interested groups are needed to help organize the first of the three-part telephone service, according to Kent Davis."

The first type of service which Nightline plans to provide is information about all kinds of public services, including "urgent government offices" and "first aid." The second part of the service will involve reporting any "suspicious" persons on the campus. The third and final part will be the "last resort" help to get students around.

Nightline will also provide a "free service." Probable weekend will be of all types from knee-busters to chest and drugstore. "This service is for the benefit of students, faculty and community members who work together are planning to start Nightline on August 15th."

"Persons from the Mental Health Association, ASUI, the police and other interested groups are needed to help organize the first of the three-part telephone service, according to Kent Davis."

The first type of service which Nightline plans to provide is information about all kinds of public services, including "urgent government offices" and "first aid." The second part of the service will involve reporting any "suspicious" persons on the campus. The third and final part will be the "last resort" help to get students around.

Nightline will also provide a "free service." Probable weekend will be of all types from knee-busters to chest and drugstore. "This service is for the benefit of students, faculty and community members who work together are planning to start Nightline on August 15th."

"Persons from the Mental Health Association, ASUI, the police and other interested groups are needed to help organize the first of the three-part telephone service, according to Kent Davis."

The first type of service which Nightline plans to provide is information about all kinds of public services, including "urgent government offices" and "first aid." The second part of the service will involve reporting any "suspicious" persons on the campus. The third and final part will be the "last resort" help to get students around.

Nightline will also provide a "free service." Probable weekend will be of all types from knee-busters to chest and drugstore. "This service is for the benefit of students, faculty and community members who work together are planning to start Nightline on August 15th."

"Persons from the Mental Health Association, ASUI, the police and other interested groups are needed to help organize the first of the three-part telephone service, according to Kent Davis."

The first type of service which Nightline plans to provide is information about all kinds of public services, including "urgent government offices" and "first aid." The second part of the service will involve reporting any "suspicious" persons on the campus. The third and final part will be the "last resort" help to get students around.

Nightline will also provide a "free service." Probable weekend will be of all types from knee-busters to chest and drugstore. "This service is for the benefit of students, faculty and community members who work together are planning to start Nightline on August 15th."

"Persons from the Mental Health Association, ASUI, the police and other interested groups are needed to help organize the first of the three-part telephone service, according to Kent Davis."

The first type of service which Nightline plans to provide is information about all kinds of public services, including "urgent government offices" and "first aid." The second part of the service will involve reporting any "suspicious" persons on the campus. The third and final part will be the "last resort" help to get students around.
We've got BOSTON ROCKERS for your Study Room

Also Mirror Plate Glass
$19.00

Look at THIS!
Rug Rolled End
To Fill Your Room With Comfort

What? Me
Worry About Parking?
Never Happen!

Hyton's Honda has the answer to your parking problem.

(also, at 100 + miles / gal., there's a lot of weekend fun per dollar.)

Duane Larson
882-7934

MUMS FOR HOMECOMING
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 24th ORDER EARLY
ONLY A LIMITED NUMBER WILL BE MADE RESERVE YOURS NOW!
AT
MOSCOW FLORESTS AND GIFTS
CORNER OF MAIN & BOOTH
892-2943

Idaho waterpolo team wins over WSU in first victory ever

The University of Idaho water polo team won their first ever inter-collegiate match in the history of the team around the WSU teams 14-21 Saturday at Pullman.

Saturday, senior swimmer member of the Idaho Water Polo team, the Vandals in swing with two goals, Senior, Michael painting of help from Resnick, Brad, Hilger, who scored four goals.

Coach Dar Robinson said that playing in the opening pool complex at Idaho is providing the chance for the team and they are looking forward to the upcoming matches on the schedule.

Tomorrow night at 8:30 p.m., the Vandals will meet the University of Washington squad here in the next match. There is no charge for admission. Other match dates for the Vandals are Montana State, Idaho State from Moscow on Nov. 5 for the dedication ceremonies of the new pool complex. The final meet will be with WSU at Moscow on Nov. 13.

Raphael's needs

DOMESTIC AND IMPORTED TOBACCO
CARTERS DRUG STORE
"Trees To Shake To Music"

GREAT BOAT
DISCOVERIES

Here and now: cold country boots that make it on city sidewalks. Some smooth, others featured, with warm fleece linings and sure-grip soles. Adventurous things just waiting to be discovered.
Homecoming game set with PSU Vandal faces tomorrow

By Ken Gonschaur
Aggie Sport Writer

When the Idaho Vandals were favored by 14 points against the Oregon Ducks last week, $31, the domesticated football hogs went ahead with game day plans. Vandal fans are hoping that their team won't be breasted, however, as they are anxiously waiting to see if the Vandal football hogs pull off their third straight victory. It was an outcome that is possible, if the Vandals face the right opponent. The Vandals have promised to

They can be listed among the all-time greats.
They will be on hand for the game this Saturday when the Vandals play against the PSU.

The Vandals will meet the Aggies for the third time in the season. Last year, the Vandals won the game, 7-3.

Clubs to hold meeting all skiers are invited

The club is looking for new members to join for the upcoming season. The club will meet on Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the Student Union. The club will meet weekly, and will have a meeting on Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. The club is looking for skiers of all levels to join the club. The club will have weekly meetings and practice sessions. The club will meet at the Idaho State University.

Frosh squad to seek undefeated season

The Idaho Vandals' football team is looking for an unbeaten season this year. The Vandals have been preparing for the season, and are looking to make a strong showing this year. The Vandals will be looking to make a statement this season, and are looking to make a mark in the conference. The Vandals will be looking for their third straight victory, and are looking to make a strong statement.

The Vandals will be looking to make a statement this season, and are looking to make a mark in the conference. The Vandals
will be looking for their third straight victory,
and are looking to make a statement.

The Vandals will be looking to make a
statement this season, and are looking to
make a mark in the conference. The Vandals
will be looking for their third straight victory,
and are looking to make a statement.

The Vandals will be looking to make a
statement this season, and are looking to
make a mark in the conference. The Vandals
will be looking for their third straight victory,
and are looking to make a statement.

The Vandals will be looking to make a
statement this season, and are looking to
make a mark in the conference. The Vandals
will be looking for their third straight victory,
and are looking to make a statement.

The Vandals will be looking to make a
statement this season, and are looking to
make a mark in the conference. The Vandals
will be looking for their third straight victory,
and are looking to make a statement.

The Vandals will be looking to make a
statement this season, and are looking to
make a mark in the conference. The Vandals
will be looking for their third straight victory,
and are looking to make a statement.

The Vandals will be looking to make a
statement this season, and are looking to
make a mark in the conference. The Vandals
will be looking for their third straight victory,
and are looking to make a statement.

The Vandals will be looking to make a
statement this season, and are looking to
make a mark in the conference. The Vandals
will be looking for their third straight victory,
and are looking to make a statement.

The Vandals will be looking to make a
statement this season, and are looking to
make a mark in the conference. The Vandals
will be looking for their third straight victory,
and are looking to make a statement.

The Vandals will be looking to make a
statement this season, and are looking to
make a mark in the conference. The Vandals
will be looking for their third straight victory,
and are looking to make a statement.

The Vandals will be looking to make a
statement this season, and are looking to
make a mark in the conference. The Vandals
will be looking for their third straight victory,
and are looking to make a statement.

The Vandals will be looking to make a
statement this season, and are looking to
make a mark in the conference. The Vandals
will be looking for their third straight victory,
and are looking to make a statement.

The Vandals will be looking to make a
statement this season, and are looking to
make a mark in the conference. The Vandals
will be looking for their third straight victory,
and are looking to make a statement.

The Vandals will be looking to make a
statement this season, and are looking to
make a mark in the conference. The Vandals
will be looking for their third straight victory,
and are looking to make a statement.

The Vandals will be looking to make a
statement this season, and are looking to
make a mark in the conference. The Vandals
will be looking for their third straight victory,
and are looking to make a statement.

The Vandals will be looking to make a
statement this season, and are looking to
make a mark in the conference. The Vandals
will be looking for their third straight victory,
and are looking to make a statement.

The Vandals will be looking to make a
statement this season, and are looking to
make a mark in the conference. The Vandals
will be looking for their third straight victory,
and are looking to make a statement.
Talent, hard work and dedication — trademarks of Idaho's marching band

By John Bouter
Agness College Idaho

"When the University of Idaho Marching Band performs at home games or at other events, it not only entertains the crowd with its music and work, and dedication," said Robert Spevacek, director of the Idaho Marching Band.

"It's a tradition," said Spevacek, "that the band receives much of its support from the university administration, and the band is well-known for its hard work and dedication."