Pool opening delayed until Monday as small problems are worked out

By Mike Kato

The university's swimming pool and bleachers on the campus will not be in use until next Monday. The delay was caused when a minor mechanical problem was discovered.

The pool was opened in March, but the bleachers were not ready for use. The pool is expected to be in operation by next Monday.

A and B food plans cost more than guest rate

The report of the Commission on Campus Urest won't satisfy those who want to blame the violence on the government. Neither will it satisfy those who want to assign the blame to preeminence of administrators and university staff.

But the main issue is whether the report is willing to accept the impossible — that the violence was due to a single person.

The report finds the wisdom of its patrons and the authority of its authors, the University of Idaho, is the only source of evidence and information that is hard to come by on campuses.

Even those who like portions of the report should remain skeptical. The violence is a complex issue that can't be reduced to a simple, easy-to-understand cause.

The report is available online and can be accessed at:

Get it all together — the philosophy of David Blake

David Blake was a philosopher. A philosophy was a person who escaped the conclusion that their philosophy is a self-contained idea.

The words "the conclusion" and "they" are unnecessary.

The philosophy the philosophy of David Blake would probably look something like this:

1. Life is the collection of all the decisions we make.
2. Each decision is based on a set of values and beliefs.
3. These values and beliefs are influenced by our experiences and the environment we live in.
4. The environment we live in is shaped by the decisions we make in the past.
5. Therefore, we are responsible for the outcomes of our decisions.

David Blake's philosophy can be summarized as follows:

1. Life is a decision-making process.
2. Our decisions are influenced by our values and beliefs.
3. Our values and beliefs are shaped by our experiences and the environment we live in.
4. Our environment is shaped by our decisions in the past.
5. Therefore, we are responsible for the outcomes of our decisions.

In summary, David Blake's philosophy is that life is a decision-making process, and we are responsible for the outcomes of our decisions, which are influenced by our values and beliefs. Our environment is shaped by our past decisions, and our values and beliefs are shaped by our experiences and the environment we live in. Therefore, we are responsible for the outcomes of our decisions.

A proposed change in the University of Idaho Dairy Science regulations which states that the College of Dairy Science administrators have the right to require the student to withdraw from the university if the student is not able to be successful in the program was approved by the Student Affairs Council.

The proposed regulations, which were discussed during the Student Affairs Council meeting on Wednesday, were approved by the faculty and will be presented to the Board of Regents at its next meeting. The regulations are aimed at ensuring that students have a clear understanding of the expectations and requirements for success in the Dairy Science program.

Approved by the Student Affairs Council in a 9-4 vote, the regulations will be presented to the Board of Regents for their approval. The regulations will then be submitted to the University of Idaho Board of Regents for final approval.

The regulations include requirements for academic performance, attendance, and conduct. Students who fail to meet these requirements will be subject to disciplinary action, including suspension or expulsion.

The regulations also require that students attend all classes and complete all assignments on time. Students who fail to do so will be subject to disciplinary action.

The regulations will take effect immediately and will be updated as necessary to reflect changes in the program.

The Student Affairs Council also discussed other matters, including the printing of the university newspaper, the fee for the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, and the funding of the student newspaper, the KUOI.

FPA receives $50,000 donation from foundation

The Foundation for Postgraduate Education (FPA) has received a $50,000 donation from the American Schools Foundation. This donation is specifically for the FPA Center for Career Planning.

Gifs come in many forms including duck plushies, animal keychains, and even personalized tattoos. They are less likely when we do things like buy an American-made gift, for example. Rather, she said, "If the university and other research schools are interested in recruiting more women for graduate school, they should learn about the FPA Center for Career Planning and take advantage of the opportunities it offers."
Idaho to participate in national conference

Idaho, along with the rest of the nation, is in the final stages of planning for the Pan American Conference in the fall White House Conference, which will be conducted in Washington, D.C., on the following weeks:

Legal rights and responsibilities and the manner of changing the character of the country are major issues that will be discussed at the conference. The White House Conference has been scheduled for the month of June, and the conference will be held at the University of Idaho.

After the October workshops on the same topic, I will join the dignitaries in the White House.

The White House Conference will be attended by the Secretary of Agriculture for the Department of Agriculture in Idaho.

The conference will consist of two sessions: the first session is on the subject of the constitution, and the second session is on the subject of the tax laws. Every conference has its goal for its program, and we appreciate the opportunity to make Idaho's program more available to our national youth.

Funding problems

The Idaho Conference is being held to provide the problems of children and youth to Idaho.

Many students from 50 miles in the White House Conference on Children and Youth. This national conference has been held every year since 1960, and it is held on the same day as the Conference of the Idaho Women's Rights Organization.

This discussion was a survey conducted in Idaho in order to determine the present and future directions of the conference. The conference helps to determine and reflect the future goals.

The process of the conference was the only process which could be impossible in a situation where the conference is conducted by the people who have the opportunity to contribute to the conference. The conference helps to determine and reflect the future goals.

War declared for Idaho game

It's a war and Idaho is the battle-room. Coach Fred Taylor declared war on the University of Idaho yesterday afternoon as the two teams will battle it out Saturday in Pocatello. 'This is our last chance,' said Taylor, who feels that Idaho is the last hope for the Western Athletic Conference. Idaho will win, he declared. The visiting Vandals will come to Idaho by the busload and Taylor has a battle plan for them.

The Vandals are expected to be a formidable team, Taylor feels, with many good players. The Idaho team, on the other hand, will be the underdogs. Taylor feels with a good defense he can go a long way against the Vandals.

The Idaho team will be under the leadership of Coach Vern Grubb, who has built a team to be reckoned with. The Vandals have signed four new players in the off-season and Taylor feels that they will be a strong team.

The Idaho game will be a battle of the best and the rest. Idaho has some good players, but Taylor feels that his team has the edge. The Idaho team is expected to be a strong one.

The Vandals have a record of 6-4-2, while the Idaho team is 5-5-1. The Vandals have a good chance of winning, but Taylor feels that his team can give them a good game.

The Idaho game will be a test of the Idaho team's ability to play against a team of the Vandals' caliber. The Idaho team will have to be at their best to stand a chance against the Vandals.

CIRCLE R MEATS

Bred for Flavor! Trimmed for Value!

Circle R Meat starts with yearling steers that feed in the lush plains of the Big West. Pampered and watchdogged every step of the way until it reaches federally inspected packing plants. Then the best of it is set aside for the Circle R Brand. This is the kind of meat we can back up, and we do. It's money-back meat. We trim it and package it with the best side down. Then we put a Better Homes & Gardens tested recipe right on the package and send it home with you, confident we're earning another steady customer. You can pay more money, but you can't buy better eating meat. It's a cut above the rest. We steak our reputation on it.
