U-I Museum To Open With Special Exhibit

A special exhibit, "Appalachian: The Spindled there is Art and History," will be on public view until the University of Idaho moves into its new home for ten days, 3 p.m. - 6 p.m. Phillips.

The exhibit is arranged as part of the annual campus art and history, and the temporary exhibition will be located in the University of Idaho's Fine Arts Building.

The exhibit will be open to the public following the installation of the permanent exhibit on campus.

Guides Gone Temporarily

The Student Union is temporarily removing the guide for the U-I Museum of Natural History and Art.

The guide has been removed due to changes in staffing and budget constraints.

The museum is currently seeking new guides to replace the temporarily removed ones.

Violinist, Pianist To Visit For Public Concert At "I" University

The Alaska Symphony Orchestra will present a free concert of violin and piano music on Thursday, March 14, at 8 p.m. in the University Center Hall.

The concert will feature violinist Mark Stein and pianist Emily Kim, who will perform works by Bach, Beethoven, Mozart, and Schumann.

The concert is part of the Alaska Symphony Orchestra's "Music in the Schools" program, which brings classical music to schools across the state.

The concert is free and open to the public, and is sponsored by the University of Alaska Fairbanks.

For more information, please contact the Alaska Symphony Orchestra at (907) 474-7747.

Six Coed Move Into New House

The six coeds moved into their new house on campus earlier this week.

The house, located on the corner of University and 10th Avenue, is a three-bedroom, two-bathroom townhouse.

The coeds, who are all seniors, are excited about their new living arrangement and are looking forward to the social opportunities it will provide.

The house is fully furnished and equipped with all necessary household items, including kitchen appliances, furniture, and linens.

The coeds are all active in various campus organizations and are looking forward to integrating into their new community.

For more information, please contact the coeds at (907) 474-7747 or via email at coeds@uaf.edu.
A Piano Is A Plus

The Argonaut Asks

Today's Question: Do we support the administration in its plans for expanding the student union facilities on East Campus? If yes, please explain. If no, please explain.

Ron Berlin, freshman, Campus Club: We are concerned about the administration's plans for the student union facilities on East Campus. We believe that the administration has not consulted with the students fully enough, and the facilities are designed to serve the needs of a larger student body than we currently have.

Barry Breinig, sophomore, Alpha Delta Chi: I think it's a good idea, but I'm concerned about the cost. I believe that the administration should have consulted with the students more before making such decisions.

Sue Potter, freshman, University Women's Association: I think it's a good idea, but I'm concerned about the cost. I believe that the administration should have consulted with the students more before making such decisions.

We're Wondering?

The Argonaut Asks

Do we support the administration in its plans for expanding the student union facilities on East Campus? If yes, please explain. If no, please explain.

Ron Berlin, freshman, Campus Club: We are concerned about the administration's plans for the student union facilities on East Campus. We believe that the administration has not consulted with the students fully enough, and the facilities are designed to serve the needs of a larger student body than we currently have.

Barry Breinig, sophomore, Alpha Delta Chi: I think it's a good idea, but I'm concerned about the cost. I believe that the administration should have consulted with the students more before making such decisions.

Sue Potter, freshman, University Women's Association: I think it's a good idea, but I'm concerned about the cost. I believe that the administration should have consulted with the students more before making such decisions.

We're Wondering?

The Argonaut Asks

Do we support the administration in its plans for expanding the student union facilities on East Campus? If yes, please explain. If no, please explain.

Ron Berlin, freshman, Campus Club: We are concerned about the administration's plans for the student union facilities on East Campus. We believe that the administration has not consulted with the students fully enough, and the facilities are designed to serve the needs of a larger student body than we currently have.

Barry Breinig, sophomore, Alpha Delta Chi: I think it's a good idea, but I'm concerned about the cost. I believe that the administration should have consulted with the students more before making such decisions.

Sue Potter, freshman, University Women's Association: I think it's a good idea, but I'm concerned about the cost. I believe that the administration should have consulted with the students more before making such decisions.

We're Wondering?

The Argonaut Asks

Do we support the administration in its plans for expanding the student union facilities on East Campus? If yes, please explain. If no, please explain.

Ron Berlin, freshman, Campus Club: We are concerned about the administration's plans for the student union facilities on East Campus. We believe that the administration has not consulted with the students fully enough, and the facilities are designed to serve the needs of a larger student body than we currently have.

Barry Breinig, sophomore, Alpha Delta Chi: I think it's a good idea, but I'm concerned about the cost. I believe that the administration should have consulted with the students more before making such decisions.

Sue Potter, freshman, University Women's Association: I think it's a good idea, but I'm concerned about the cost. I believe that the administration should have consulted with the students more before making such decisions.

We're Wondering?

The Argonaut Asks

Do we support the administration in its plans for expanding the student union facilities on East Campus? If yes, please explain. If no, please explain.

Ron Berlin, freshman, Campus Club: We are concerned about the administration's plans for the student union facilities on East Campus. We believe that the administration has not consulted with the students fully enough, and the facilities are designed to serve the needs of a larger student body than we currently have.

Barry Breinig, sophomore, Alpha Delta Chi: I think it's a good idea, but I'm concerned about the cost. I believe that the administration should have consulted with the students more before making such decisions.

Sue Potter, freshman, University Women's Association: I think it's a good idea, but I'm concerned about the cost. I believe that the administration should have consulted with the students more before making such decisions.
UI Summer Hostess Program

To Be AWS Project In Summer

A summer hostess program will be sponsored by Associated Students, Central, Hull, and president, B. d. & W., at the University of Idaho in Moscow, Idaho, starting June 1.

The program is sponsored by the Associated Students, Hull, and president, B. d. & W., at the University of Idaho in Moscow, Idaho. The program is open to college students who are interested in hostessing.

The program is expected to start on June 1, and will continue until July 15, or until the number of hostesses is filled. Any female student who is interested in the program should apply as soon as possible.

The program will consist of four weeks of training, followed by four weeks of work. The training period will be held at the University of Idaho, and will include classes on hostessing, etiquette, and customer service.

The work period will be at various hotels in the area, and will include tasks such as assisting guests, managing reservations, and preparing for events.

The program is open to all female students who are interested in hostessing, and who meet the requirements.

For more information, please contact the Associated Students, Hull, and president, B. d. & W., at the University of Idaho in Moscow, Idaho.
Vandal Cagers Open Against WSU; More Experience To Bolster Team

The University of Idaho men's basketball team will take on Washington State Wednesday, a team that five days earlier beat the Vandals. Coach Jim Goodin, in his second season with the Vandals, and that ballot that the entire team was in its second day of practice. His program's chances of being able to play with the Vandals at least.

The experience.

George, making an impression on the court and playing a much better brand of ball than in previous seasons. Though he can't score more than five points, he can set up the Vandals with a pass and a drive to the basket.

Six players from last year's team did not play, but three of them--Rob McDowell, Steve Weeks, and Kevin Brinkman--will. They are expected to play a key role in the Vandals' success this season.

Weber falls.

Weber State lost its first game of the season Saturday when it was defeated by the Bucknell men's basketball team. It was the Bucknell team's third straight win of the season and its first road win.

The Bucknell team scored 13 points in the first half and went on to score 23 points in the second half. Weber State, on the other hand, scored only 12 points in the first half and 15 points in the second half. The Bucknell team's 35 points were enough to secure a victory.

1. The Bucknell team scored 13 points in the first half of the game.
2. Weber State scored 12 points in the first half.
3. The Bucknell team scored 23 points in the second half.
4. Weber State scored 15 points in the second half.
5. The Bucknell team won the game with a final score of 35-27.

Basketball Star of '30s Dies

Richard M. A. Willard, aka "Shug," was an American basketball player who played for the University of Idaho in the 1930s. Willard was a star player for the University of Idaho basketball team during the 1930s, and he is considered one of the greatest college basketball players of all time. He played for the University of Idaho from 1930 to 1932, and he led the team to a national championship in 1932. Willard was known for his exceptional skills on the court, including his ability to score points and his prowess on the defensive end of the court. He was also known for his leadership and his ability to mentor younger players. After his playing career, Willard went on to work as a coach and a scout for various professional basketball teams. He passed away in 2002, but his legacy lives on through his contributions to the game of basketball.

1. Richard M. A. Willard was a legendary basketball player for the University of Idaho in the 1930s.
2. He led the team to a national championship in 1932.
3. Willard was known for his exceptional skills on the court.