In Absentia

"There is an inquest against a man with a knife," to be held in the office of the coroner in absentia." He's been charged with the murder of his wife."

In the deck of the president's department, the secretaries, librarians, and administrative staff were busy preparing the records of the university for the winter. They were expected to be ready for the court next week.

Mayor L. T. Smith, chairman of the Board of Trustees, was present to see the preparations for the opening of the new academic year. He was pleased with the progress and said that the university would be ready to open as scheduled.

"Mr. B. H. Thompson is to be at it again," the Student Union Building. In the last week a $300 display during the opening of the Student Union Building was announced. The display was opened to the public and was well attended.

"It seems that sticky-fingered students are ransacking a new low when they find that there is money to be made and something for which they can be held responsible," said Mr. Thompson. "The display is ready to run without the help of students in the breaks of the University and the public may inspect the exhibits which have been carefully chosen and arranged by students of the University who have been working in various capacities on the University staff for the past year or more."
Sweetheart Dinners Held By Idaho Living Groups

Sweetheart dinners, Valentine parties, and new pledges made the activity calendar in Idaho living groups a lively scene during the third week of Feb.

Franklin Foremost was divided up and served in style. Each girl was given a "secret" for the pledge to find the "private" campus while in the "secret" store on the night before Valentine's Day. The girls were then scheduled to deliver their Valentine's gifts to their Sweetheart the following day.

The second Sweetheart dinner was held in the Idaho Living Group Community center.

Delma Gamma Delma Gamma opened the second week with a special dinner for members. The Kappa Sigma Fraternity and Sigma Alpha Mu Fraternity provided the evening's entertainment.

Pledge Officer Pin

Pledge officer pin was given to the pledge officer at the meeting. The pins were chosen by the pledges and presented to the pledge officer.

List of Pledge Officers

The list of new pledges and their sponsors was presented at the meeting. The list included:

- Alpha Pi Omega: Sue, Bill Cooper, Randall, and Larry Smith, Mushroom.
- Beta Phi: Pat Priest and Ken Badrun.
- Omega Phi: Mike Griffin, Mike, and Larry Badrun.
- Delta Gamma: Don Udine, Mike Udine, and Larry Badrun.
- Gamma Phi: Pat Hance, Mike Udine, and Larry Badrun.
- Kappa Sigma: Mike Udine and Larry Badrun.

Deadline Is Set For Applications

Friday will be the deadline for applications for the 1966 look-a-like deadline of the Idaho Living Group.

If the applications are late, a fee will be required, according to F. R. O'Connell, University of Idaho.

The last day for applications will be March 18. The deadline for applications will be extended for 10 days.

Pledge Banquet

Pledge banquet will be held in the University Center at 7 p.m. The banquet will be held in the University Center's Ballroom.

Foremost's Ball Is Lively Scene

During the intermission entertainment was provided by the Bag Band and the Foremost's Band.

The Bag Band played "Little Brown Jug" and "Sweethearts," and the Foremost's Band played different levels to make the music more enjoyable.

The Foremost's Band also played over the quarter and half of the dance floor.
