President Kennedy has stated that while the project may have some serious drawbacks, the plan still has other features which are desirable. The project is under consideration, and a decision will be made after further study.

The U.S. Department of the Interior has already ruled out the feasibility of the plan. The President is expected to announce his decision soon.

The debate over the use of the site for the proposed development has continued, with supporters and opponents continuing to argue their points. The decision will be made after further study and consideration of all the available information.
Vandeleers toured across Europe

By Gilda Anthony

The fifty-two member Vandeleer European Consort, which received Sunday night after three weeks in Europe, the group visited five countries and performed eleven concerts. The Milwaukee trip was paid entirely by contributions and Individual Vandeleer support.

One of the highlights of the tour was receiving an invitation from the mayor of Darmstadt, Germany, to a private audience at the U.S. Embassy there. The audience consisted solely of musical dignitaries of the country.

Most of the concerts were in churches and cathedrals. The music included Schubert and Bach religious songs, American ballads, spirituals, and folk songs.

Some of the famous places to which they sang include: Abbey Church in Westminster, England, Kemptengroep of the Germany National Church in West Berlin, and the American Cathedral in Paris.

The Vandeleer left March 13, and flew non-stop from London to Berlin. The first week spent in England. Performances there included visiting Westminster Abbey, Parliament, the Tower of London, and the British Museum. They also saw the ruins of the London Bridge Boiler, Windsor Castle, and the pre-historic Stonehendge reconstructed site.

The Vandeleer made a brief stop at the Shrine of the Holy Family in Paris, France. There they heard Beethoven's Ninth Symphony conducted by the late Mstislav Rostropovich.

East and West Germany were the next places visited. In West Berlin, the choir heard a talk on the divided city by the U.S. Commissioner in West Berlin, who is from Idaho.

They then returned to Darmstadt. There they received many German hospitality to business in Darmstadt. Accommodation there has been made by Mrs. Eda Seller, a former Vandeleer currently living in Darmstadt.

After the concert in the U.S. Embassy in Luxembourg, the tour ended Sunday, March 20. The Vandeleer is scheduled for a short concert tour of the French Riviera before returning home.

The Vandeleer also included visiting the American Embassy in Darmstadt, West Germany, the American Cathedral in Paris, and the American Embassy in Darmstadt, West Germany.

Faculty evaluation

The Board of Regents hasn't met on our campus for over a year. That may sound like the perfect straight-line for someone else to quit. "Well, our goal is the rest of the State's loss," but it shouldn't be. What is it in a snail commentary on the effectiveness of the Board of Regents and their view of the University of Illinois?

Several reasons have been offered why they haven't been seeing any intersection with the students at this University.

One is that this is the only campus in the state where students have come to school and have been mounted to counteract some of their high-handed and mysterious dealings. (Way back in the beginning of 76 some students and faculty picked up some picket signs and staged a little demonstration in front of President Hartungs office. The Regent's adjourned their meeting and lost some face (apparently) in the State.)

Another reason is an outgrowth of the "dirty war" they gave Ticky Starzback last summer. In that incident the ever knowledgeable Regents, instead of disgraced strong campus activism, in excess of 170 signatures were placed on petitions to retain Starz on the National Science faculty, and fire him next January. They were scheduled to meet on our campus last fall but didn't because, some observer says, they were afraid a strong favorable student reaction might change their compliance in the Starz affair.

It is unfortunate a group of grown men have to live in fear of the students and faculty they are supposed to be serving. This student population has never resisted decency to anything and certainly the "winds of violent dissent" are not present on our campus. What are they afraid of and how do they think they can effectively manage our University from Boys?

It seems logical that in order to understand the needs and wishes of a University the people in charge of managing that University should spend some time on campus feeling the mood and flavor of the establishment. But perhaps these gentlemen are forgetting who is in business to serve whom.- KIER.

Nixon sued to stop war

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three congressmen said President Nixon must obey an order to have all U.S. forces withdrawn from Vietnam as a first step toward ending the war and 80 other senators said the president has declared illegal.

The three, Sen. Frank Church of New York and Michael Enright of Minnesota, asked the executive branch of the government to support the war and that they as members of Congress have been demanding that constitutional right to declare war.

"This is something we hope will not be just another futile gesture," Enright said at a news conference prior to filing the suit. The suit is another attempt at getting the Supreme Court to rule on the legality of the war in Vietnam, something it repeatedly has refused to do. The court's refusal has set the direct course for action.

"The court, said the congressmen, may have studied the history of war and that they as members of Congress have been demanding that constitutional right to declare the war and that the president is in violation of the Constitution.

The congressmen said that if the president continues to do so, "he must be held accountable to the people." The president, they said, is "a constitutional officer" and "a constitutional duty."
