A DREAM

I'd love to be a writer. And then, when I was ready, I'd go to the University and write a book about my life. And when the book was finished, I'd send it to the

New York Times and they'd pay me a lot of money for it. And then I'd buy a big house and live happily ever after.

“The Boss was talking. Just as he got to his big point, I began to cough. Cough! Cough! Cough!

Hang in, I couldn’t stop, my throat tickled so.

The Boss frowned and I felt like thirty cents. That’s why I switched to OLD GOLD

Cigarettes. There isn’t a cough in a carload.”
