VANDALS POINT FOR O. S. C. GAME NEXT SATURDAY

Last Idaho Conference Battle to be Fought at Portland

DOPE FAVORS O. S. C.

Outcome Will Have Much Bearing on Idaho’s Final Rating

After a short two day stop at the conclusion of Idaho’s nine-game season, the Vandals have returned to Portland where another important game is to be played next Saturday. It will be the Vandals against the Oregon State College team.

The Oregonians are the only unbeaten team in the conference, having defeated Idaho in their last meeting. Idaho’s win over Oregon State is the only other game played in which the conference was won. The Vandals have had a fine season and are to be considered a good team, according to local sports writers.

The game next Saturday will be played on November 27th at 3:00 p.m.

Who will scout this electrical frontier?
WETHER is the Bell Telephone Laboratories, in the Western Electric workshops, or in the various operating companies, telephonic executives are on the frontier of human needs to serve the public.

It is significant that your true telephone man, be he with the end of the call in his blood, never speaks of having "perfected the art of communication." And this in spite of the fact that America, by its solid achievements in telephony, shows the world.

Work in the Bell System demands the keen curiosity of pioneers and the infatuation for investigating, and the free hand be given to the scientist.
