APPOINTMENTS AND PLANS FOR JUNIOR WEEK ANNOUNCED

Class of ’29 Sets Week of April 8-10 aside for Annual Traditions

COMMITTEES NAMED

Dances, Parade, Assembly and Socials are among Big Events

Continuation appointments and full plans for Junior Week were announced yesterday for the class of ’29. The only event announced for April 8 is a Strike-Noon dance at the Stew in Memory of the late Harry W. Horne.

Approximately 120 committees have been named to handle the multitude of details involved in the many events scheduled for the week. The lists of committee members which will be published shortly contain the names of students who have already been chosen as representatives for the different activities.

Tickets will go on sale Monday afternoon, April 4, at the Union Club, and each student will be able to purchase 10 tickets at the reduced price of 75c. This price represents a saving of 25c per ticket and represents a great saving in the cost of the week's activities. The tickets will be available in the Union Club for students who have not already been chosen as members of committees.

STUDENTS AT PEAK WITH OREGON "COOPS"

Special Musical Patrol "Billy Bees" Ahh Bees to Roar at Oregon State

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON—The musical patrol of the University of Oregon was on hand here yesterday afternoon to present a clipper-themed rap song to the students. The song, "The Oregon State Coop," was sung in perfect unison by the entire group, including the "Boys of the West" and "Girls of the East." The song, which was arranged by Edward J. Dwyer, features a variety of instruments, including the clarinet, trombone, and trumpet. The music is set to a lively rhythm, and the lyrics are filled with references to the university's history and traditions. The performance was well-received by the audience, who gave the performers a standing ovation at the conclusion of the song.

PACIFIC ALCOHOL.—When the holiday spirit pervades young and old, it is easy to appreciate the humor of the very old. The druggists in this line can bring a lot of mirth to the homes of the old, and the dollars they save in their new year can be usefully spent on other things.

RIDING A PIONEER—On the other hand, the riders of the olden times were a bit more heroic than their successors in the same line. The old riders were not afraid of the elements, and were more than willing to risk their lives for the good of the community.

STANFORD MAN HITS AT HUMOR

The old men of the western states, who have made the world their home, have a great deal of humor. They are not afraid to ridicule the follies of the present era, and are willing to laugh at the mistakes of their predecessors.

Distinguished by a favor that places it first

It is a natural pride that Camel feels for its triumphe. Not only does it lead the field shortly after its introduction. It passed steadily on with each succeeding year till today it holds a place in public favor higher than any other smoke ever reached. Camel is supreme with modern smokers.

Obviously, there is a quality here that particular smokers appreciate.
