Knights will Sell Gem Subscriptions

History Group to Hunt
Drive for Money for Mountaineers

As a part of the Mountaineers’ drives for money, the History Club will have its gem subscription drive in earnest on October 26th. This is one of the drives set for the special drive for money, which is to aid the Mountaineers in buying new equipment and for other purposes. The History Club is taking over the drive for money, and all the funds raised will be turned over to the Mountaineers. The drive will be held in the Student Union and will be conducted by the History Club members.

“Pills” Molitor, former Idaho student, is on the faculty of the University of Idaho as an instructor in the History Department. He has been teaching for the past two years, and he is well known for his ability to make his classes interesting and enjoyable.

Stickers in Discord: Campus Artists Seal

The seal of the Mountaineers, as designed by the campus artists, was recently approved by the Mountaineers’ council. The seal is a symbol of the Mountaineers’ spirit and identity, and it will be used on all Mountaineer publications, including the Mountaineer newspaper.

Odds Against Idaho in Stanford Game

It will take a miracle for Idaho to win this game.

The Stanford Cardinal, under the leadership of coach John Wooden, are the overwhelming favorites to win this game. The Cardinal have a strong team, and they have been playing well this season. The Idaho Vandals, under the leadership of coach Paul Kramer, are the underdogs in this game. The Vandals have been playing well, but they are not as strong as the Cardinal.
