Icy Sidewalks Prove Too Much for High Heels; Adjustable Enchantresses Must Take Smaller Steps

By Dorothy Daniels

Winter's long, cold days attract some women to adjust their shoes with one of the latest fashions. However, many women have found that winter's cold and damp conditions are too much for high heels. Adjustments have been made to help those who need it. Some women have chosen to wear flat shoes instead of high heels, while others have opted to wear boots. The shoe industry has responded to the needs of women by introducing new styles and designs. In addition, some women have discovered that using shoes that are not too high can also be a solution.

GROUP WILL AWARD TWO DEBATE CUPS

Delta Sigma Rho to Give Trophies to Men and Women

Delta Sigma Rho, the national sorority, will award two debate cups to men and women. The cups will be presented at a formal banquet, which will be held on the campus of the university. The cups will be presented to the winners of the debate competition, which will be held on the campus of the university. The competition will be open to both men and women, and the winners will be determined by a panel of judges.

Towernull Overhead Costs For College $50.75 Yearly, Figure Shows

The organization of a college or university can save students money by reducing costs. One way to do this is to eliminate overhead costs. By doing this, the college or university can reduce its costs by $50.75 per year. This is a significant amount of money, and it can make a big difference in the cost of education for students.

HERCULIC HISTORY PROTECTS MORALS

Speakers address college students on the importance of maintaining their moral values. The speakers emphasize the importance of maintaining a strong moral foundation in college. They encourage students to make good choices and to stand up for what is right, even when it is difficult. By doing this, students can build a strong moral foundation that will serve them well throughout their lives.

Jim Tregan's "Icy Pavements"

A car skids on the icy pavement, causing a driver to lose control. The driver then hits a pedestrian, causing injuries. The accident is a reminder of the dangers of driving in icy conditions. It is important to be cautious and to drive slowly when driving in icy conditions.

WON'T LADIES HAT (19)—A Drop

It is important to be careful when driving in icy conditions. One way to do this is to avoid driving too quickly. By doing this, drivers can reduce the risk of accidents and injuries. It is also important to be aware of the road conditions and to adjust driving habits accordingly.
