President's Greeting

Greeting to Students:

Whatever your success experience has been, I trust that you are sharing the excitement and the challenge of the expanding world of education. I believe that the extraordinary value of education lies in the fact that it can help you to make sense of the world and to understand your place in it. It does not require us to accept the conventional wisdom of the past, but it does require us to use our own critical faculties, our own minds, to think and to decide for ourselves. I believe that the best education is one that helps you to think independently and to act independently. It is one that enables you to think for yourself and to act for yourself. It is one that helps you to understand the world and to be able to make a difference in it. It is one that helps you to be able to make a difference in the world.

VANDALS ROLL INTO HIGH AS TRAINING DAYS BEGIN

Coach Calland Issues War Togs to 60 Huskies on Eve of First Call; Enthusiasm High

Ready to fight from the start for a high place in north-west football circles, and already displaying signs of enthusiasm that has brought in past months, the Vandal grid squad has begun its 1929 season. Equipment was issued last week to nearly 60 candidates.

Coach Les Calland, starting on his first year as mentor of the Idaho eleven, opened training with a talk to the men, stressing principles of sportsmanship and fighting qualities that will be necessary for every man who hopes to play on the Idaho team this fall.

Dear teammates from last year's winning team, I am glad to welcome you back and to introduce the members of the 1929 team. I am sure that you will all be successful in your endeavors. I am also happy to welcome the new members of the team. I am sure that you will all do your best to help the team to win.

SUNNY CAMPUS WAITS South Idaho Scare: Slickers Still Dusty

By M. G.

For the second time in the history of the University of Idaho, it might be possible that the worst of the snow and frost troubles is over. For three months snow and deep frost have been persistent companions and have been the cause of much trouble and expense. But now the weather is milder and more favorable, and it might be possible that the worst of the snow and frost troubles is over.

New equipment, better work and service.
You'll be proud of anything done at the Spot Shop, and we'll have it back in no time.—Bill Anderson.

Beautiful antique, made a century before last, brought all the way from England and is the old gentleman's pride. It's a piece of furniture that has been used for over 100 years. It's a family heirloom and has been passed down through generations. The craftsmanship is exquisite and it's a true example of the art of woodworking. It's a perfect addition to any living room or study and would make a great gift for someone special.

Femarkable is the growth of the student body. As the years have gone by, the enrollment at the university has increased. The student body now stands at over 15,000, and it is still growing. The university is one of the largest in the country. The growth of the university has been steady and it shows no signs of slowing down.

"Education Begins a Gentleman"

A college education is not the result of mere memorization. It is a process of learning, a process of growth, a process of developing a mind that is open to new ideas and new ways of thinking. It is a process of developing a sense of responsibility, a sense of morality, a sense of citizenship.

The system of education that we have today is not the system that we had 100 years ago. We have come to realize that education is not just about learning facts. It is about learning how to think, how to reason, how to analyze, how to evaluate, how to draw conclusions.

COURSES NAMED

Duerst to Continue Through Both Years of University

MINIMUM personal contact resulting in closer co-operation between students and faculty has ever before been established at the University of Idaho. It will result from the adoption of the faculty advisor system, the details of which are to be submitted to Dean G. J. Ballard, chairman of the board of professional advisors.

Each student in the junior college and above will have an advisor who will give guidance as to the selection of courses and the planning of careers which are in that student's best interest. Each student will be in good standing with his advisor and all his courses will be submitted through the two junior colleges.

The advisor will work in co-operation with the student personnel bureau, which, through the use of information, makes it possible to guide him in the proper selection of courses.

Graduates of junior college and above students who are planning their courses in the junior colleges will be assigned advisors and the courses will be submitted through the two junior colleges.

Churches Give Student Parties

Churches will give entertainments for university students at the several places where such entertainments are held Friday evening beginning at 8 p.m.

GRADUATE OF '07 HERE FROM CHINA

Julesman Jansen, graduate of the class of '07, has returned to the campus after a number of years spending his summer in China where he is a missionary of the United Church.

Mr. Jansen has been in the United States only on a few short visits and this is his first visit in seven years. He will remain in the United States for a short time but hopes to return to China soon.

He is planning to return to China soon but hopes to return to China soon.

Activity Point System Would Give Opportunity to Large Number

Plans to form a closer and more active relationship between all members of the student body, while increasing the status of the university's women. The Associated Women Student's appearances will be increased, a women's banjo night will be added, and activities such as the Associated Women Student's Banquet will be organized. The ADA is the only organization in the university that will sponsor both men's and women's activities. The ADA plans to form a closer and more active relationship between all members of the student body.
