IDAHO CHI ANNOUNCES PLANS FOR NEW HOUSE

“Open House” Program Covers All Phases of Work

Foresters, Architects, Electrical Engineers, and Miners Will Take Part; Exhibits Placed in Various Buildings

Preparations of several months reach their climax today as the Engineers open all departments to public inspection. Exhibits in nine buildings were opened at 2:30 this afternoon under the personal supervision of specially trained students in each branch of the technical professions.

The Idaho Argonaut, founded in 1888 by members of the Class of 1889, is the oldest student publication in the Northwest. The newspaper is printed and distributed on the campus of the University of Idaho in Moscow, Idaho. The Argonaut covers news and events related to the University of Idaho, particularly focusing on the Idaho Alpha Chi chapter of the Sigma Chi fraternity. The newspaper features articles on academic achievements, events, and announcements relevant to the university community.

The image contains a mix of text and images that are not clearly discernible due to the low resolution and quality of the scanned document. The text appears to be a combination of news articles, announcements, and advertisements, typical of a university newspaper.

Conference Leaders Meet Vanua Island for Today and Tomorrow

The Washington State college nine continued yesterday's success as it defeated Pepper's Vandals last Tuesday in Pullman by taking the game with the aid of a third straight coasted from the Idaho nine but to a first-year contest.

The Cougars appear again tonight in Pullman when they staged on Sunday in Idaho's 1-0 victory over the Vandals. Pepper's Vandals, in a strange sport, the second-year contest, failed to rise and when the men had charged away, the former were again on the board in 4-0, held for 1 to 8 months.

The entire schedule of the game was a demonstration of the Cougars' superior prowess.
