Regents Failed To Meet Agreement He Declares

First steps toward selecting a successor to Dr. F. J. Kelly, resident president of the university, are expected to take steps today at a meeting of the board of regents in Lewiston. No statements have yet been made by members of the board regarding the resignation of the president which was announced yesterday morning when the resignations of the president, Mr. W. H. Eads, secretary of the university, and the treasurer, Mr. W. H. Eads, were submitted to the board of regents in Lewiston.

Mr. Kelly's resignation will take effect Aug. 1st, and he will be succeeded by Mr. W. H. Eads, director of the university, who will serve until the next regular meeting of the board of regents.

Mr. Eads has served the university for the past 15 years, and has been president of the university since the announcement of Mr. Kelly's resignation.

SEVERE CONCESSIONS AT IDAHO

Declaring that limitations in the university's financial resources make it necessary to eliminate a number of positions, Mr. Eads said that the university's financial situation makes it impossible to maintain the current level of operations. He added that the university will have to reduce its expenses in order to maintain its financial health.

STUDENT LEADERS DISCOVER PROBLEMS

Presidents talk over Campus Questions at Seattle Convention of S.P.S.A.

Every phase of student life was discussed at the Seattle convention of the Student Press and Student Association.

Charlotte Campbell, president of the University of Washington, said that the convention was held to discuss the problems of student life.

The convention was held to discuss the problems of student life, and to plan ways of solving them.

The student body, which consists of about 5,000 students, is divided into five sections, each section being represented by a delegate.

The report of the convention will be presented at the next meeting of the student association.
