Sororities Take 116 Women as Rush Week Ends

When in Doubt—

When in doubt, ask Tillie.

What is the proper greeting for the Idaho sorority girls? Do they say, "Hi," "Hello," "Howdy," or "Hiya?"

If you want to know, it is up to Tillie to decide. It seems that the two upperclassmen at the University of Idaho who are in charge of sisterhood have decided that it is best to use Tillie's greeting. It is a sort of "come-as-you-like" policy.

"Hi" is very popular. Of the 116 women who were able to report their names to the sorority girls, 66 said "Hi." The next favorite was "Hello," with 32. "Howdy" and "Hiya" were used by 10 women each.

Sorority girls also have a "come-as-you-like" policy when it comes to taking in new members. They are not too particular about who they take in, as long as they are willing to be good girls. The only requirement is that they must be able to "come-as-they-like.""
