"To place in the money" at all events is the goal of the four southern Judge group which will refer to the Pacific International Exposition.

Final decisions for dates in the coming weeks were announced.
According to Professor C. H. Hulitts, who is in charge of the Northern, division, the division will be difficult.

When asked about the status of the event in the main exhibitor season the Division Director was asked about any, in the Southern, division, he replied that the southern division is in full progress.

"We have taken the same approach to the entire south," he said. "It is the same approach we have always taken. We have always been careful to make sure we have an equal number of the main exhibits for each division, and to make sure that the exhibits are of the same quality."

ELECTIONS ARE VITAL

In his presidential campaign, Governor Henry L. McLein has emphasized the importance of local elections. He has urged all eligible voters to cast their ballots in the upcoming contests.

McLein believes that local elections are crucial because they determine the level of representation and service that citizens receive from their local governments. He has also stressed the need for increased voter turnout to ensure that the election results accurately reflect the will of the people.

In this election cycle, there are several key races that will have a significant impact on the future of our community. These include the mayor's race, city council elections, and school board races. Each of these positions carries important responsibilities and decision-making powers that affect the quality of life for residents.

To encourage voter participation, McLein has launched a campaign to educate the public about the importance of local elections. He has emphasized the role that each vote plays in determining the outcomes of these elections.

McLein's message is clear: "Every vote counts. Your voice matters. Join me in making our community stronger by voting in the upcoming local elections."
