The Idaho Argonaut

VOLUME XXXII
THE IDAHO ARGONAUT, MOSCOW, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1930
Number 19

SHOW-OFF MEETS WITH APPROVAL OF RECORD CROWDS
Packed Auditorium Views Success of First Play of Year

DOLES WELL FITTED
Characters Execute Difficult Roles; Setting For Scenic Is Effective

A recent attendance of records was established Monday night by the Moscow Dramatic Club when the first production of the year, "The Diary of an Old Woman," was given. The entire auditorium was filled with enthusiastic patrons, who expressed approval of the performance of the young players. The play was directed by William R. Chase, who has been an active member of the club for several years.

VANDALS PERFECTION POWERFUL OFFENSE FOR GRIZZLY TILT

Revised Lines Smashes: Reverts to Cuts and gives more Montana STRESS PASSING

Aerial Work Shows Improvements: No Snow to Be Snowed

The Red Stiletto Vandalos have been making a strong showing in their recent games. They have defeated the Grizzly Tilt twice, and are expected to do well against the Stresses Passing. Aerial work has shown improvements, and the team is well prepared to meet the demands of the season.

ASSOCIATION SEEKS HOUSE ON CAMPUS

Non-Sectarian Religious Organization Is Foundation of Group

Three conferences are offering opportunities for non-sectarian religious associations. The group hopes to meet on campus soon. The organization is composed of young people who believe in the ideal of brotherhood.

ARONGANOT, ALL-CAMPUS CRICKET ELEVEN (selected by Argonaut Sports Staff)

Washington State Cougars fill Four Berths on All-Pacific Coast Eleven. Named by Argonaut Sports Staff

WASHINGTON STATE COUGARS FILL FOUR

Berths on All-Pacific Coast Eleven. Named by Argonaut Sports Staff

Three U.S.C. Men Win Recognition; Corkery at Guard

The Pacific Coast Collegiate Athletic Conference is now in full swing, and the Cougars have been doing very well. Corkery at guard has been particularly good, and has earned the recognition of the conference.

EDWARDS ON EAGLE

Edwards, one of the members of the Eagle crew, is doing well. He is a very capable rower, and is expected to do well against the rest of the conference.

Three U.S.C. Men Win Recognition; Corkery at Guard

The Pacific Coast Collegiate Athletic Conference is now in full swing, and the Cougars have been doing very well. Corkery at guard has been particularly good, and has earned the recognition of the conference.

Psych Students Find Mice Pretty Much Like Humans

The students of the psychology department have been studying the behavior of mice. They have found that the mice are very much like humans.

Peeing Tom

Recently was seen a cat, a very odd sight. It was found that the cat had been trained to pee in a designated spot. The students have been studying the behavior of the cat, and have found that it is much like the behavior of humans.

Plans for Glider Club formulated

Mr. T. A. Willard, president of the Glider Club, has announced plans for the upcoming season. The club will be meeting regularly to discuss the plans.

The Idaho Argonaut

The Idaho Argonaut is the official student newspaper of the University of Idaho, covering news and events on campus. It is published weekly and is available for free. The newspaper covers a wide range of topics, including sports, campus events, and local news. The Idaho Argonaut is an important source of information for students, faculty, and the local community.
A Rain of Hope, At Least

The weather map for the city of Moscow shows a band of rain moving in from the west. The forecast predicts that the rain will continue throughout the day. It may cause some inconvenience, but it is a relief from the dry conditions we have been experiencing.

When Winter Comes

Christmas is just around the corner, and the thought of snow and cold weather brings a smile to our faces. Winter is a time for family gatherings, warm fires, and cozy sweaters. It may be cold outside, but the warmth of love and friendship will keep us cozy.

The English Sense of Humor

In his book "In Search of Lost Time," Marcel Proust writes about the British sense of humor, which he describes as "stupidly obvious." He says that the British find humor in situations that are not actually funny, which is a common trait among people who are used to taking everything seriously.

It looms up large in their lives

The telephone has a large presence in our daily lives, and its impact cannot be underestimated. It has revolutionized the way we communicate, enabling us to connect with people instantly, regardless of distance.

Between Classes

A Delicious Cup of Coffee or Hot Chocolate at the ORIOLE NEST

Idaho's Center

STEPS INTO A MODERN WORLD

No one can deny the importance of telephone systems in our modern society. They have become an essential part of our daily lives, enabling us to connect with people from all over the world.

PARTY SLIPPERS FOR THE WELL DRESSED

White Venus Pump Dyes beautifully to match the evening gown. $7.55

Valerie Marie Pump—A light weight slipper for dressy affairs. $9.85

BUSTER BROWN SHOE STORE

Strutwear Hosey

$1.00—$1.50—$1.95

Better every way

Pep for dinner—been for breakfast—what for lunch? No wonder Kellogg's Pep Flakes are so popular and so good for you.

Ask to have them served at your frequency or campus restaurant.

Kellogg's

Pep FLAKES

DYNAMITE triumphs the way for modern engineering wonders.

The HUDSON RIVER BRIDGE

How dynamic was used to blast tunnels for anchoring gigantic cables.

In 1922, after the fears of the Hudson Bridge had been laid to rest, the New York, N.J. & Que Bridge Company constructed the Hudson River Bridge. The bridge was a triumph of engineering and construction, and it remains a symbol of the power and ingenuity of human beings.

The bridge is 12,000 feet long, with a main span of 2,080 feet, and it is supported by 8,000 tons of steel. The bridge is a marvel of modern engineering, and it continues to be a symbol of the progress and innovation of the American people.

The bridge was completed in 1927, and it has since become an important landmark in the New York City skyline. It is a testament to the power of human ingenuity and the ability of people to overcome obstacles and build great things.
The coming of winter to the campus with the first burst of cold air and blue skies was hastened by the early snowfall of the past week. The falling snow not only brought the first frosts of the year, but also rendered the campus a Winter wonderland. The snow-covered grounds and the evergreen trees provided a picturesque setting for the winter scene.

President Gaskill, with the members of the Faculty, attended the annual Christmas dinner at the Hotel Continental. The evening was a festive one, with the guests enjoying good food and conversation in the warm and inviting atmosphere of the hotel's dining room.

The Sigma Chi fraternity held its annual Holiday Party at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dittman. The guests were treated to a delicious buffet dinner and a program of music. The evening was a great success, with the guests enjoying each other's company and the festive atmosphere.

On Friday evening, the Sigma Gamma Rho sorority held its annual Holiday Party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dittman. The guests enjoyed a delicious buffet dinner and a program of music.

On Saturday evening, the Delta Gamma sorority held its annual Holiday Party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dittman. The guests enjoyed a delicious buffet dinner and a program of music.

The community was invited to attend the annual Christmas tree lighting ceremony in downtown Boise. The tree was illuminated with thousands of lights, creating a festive atmosphere. The ceremony was followed by a parade through the downtown area, with floats and dance performances.

The annual Christmas parade was held in downtown Boise. The parade featured floats, dancers, and live music, creating a festive atmosphere.

The annual Christmas festival was held in downtown Boise. The festival featured live music, dance performances, and a variety of craft vendors.

The annual Christmas concert was held in the campus auditorium. The concert featured performances by the campus choir and orchestra, as well as guest performers.

The annual Christmas market was held in downtown Boise. The market featured a variety of vendors selling holiday ornaments, gifts, and other festive items.

The annual Christmas lights competition was held in downtown Boise. The competition was judged by a panel of judges, who awarded prizes to the homes with the most festive displays.

The annual Christmas tree lighting ceremony in downtown Boise was a great success, with thousands of people attending to witness the tree being illuminated with thousands of lights.

The annual Christmas parade was a festive event, with floats, dancers, and live music creating a joyful atmosphere.
Borah postpones appearance here

Professor Kerz Figs to Bowl Same

At Early Spring

Wednesday at 8:30 the A.A. and B.A. students of the University of Idaho are scheduled to meet in the Union auditorium to hear Professor Kerz, an authority on the Philippine culture. The professor is well known in this country for his work of education and thinking. He has been a very active member of the community and has made many contributions to the intellectual life of this country. His lecture will be broad in scope and will cover many aspects of Philippino culture with emphasis on the history, politics, economics, and social structures. The audience is expected to learn much about these topics from his lecture.