WANDALS WILL BE POWERFUL CREW IN ANNUAL GRID CLASSIC AT BOISE

Two Weeks of Practice Reveals Harbor Man Are Back In Shape

Special to the Argonaut

Boise, Dec. 26—Twenty-four Idaho Vandals are set to meet the University of Oregon Ducks tomorrow night and a team bolstered by the addition of such stars as former Idaho star catcher, Joe Goss, and former University of Oregon stars, Claude Mullen, George Price, and Dave Hahn, are being adopted as the Vandals' most likely candidates to win their second straight conference championship.

It is a different Idaho team than the one that went west in 1954 with a 4-3 conference victory over Oregon. The Vandals will meet the Ducks at Boise and will try to add to their conference record.

SEVEN FORENSIC MEETS SCHEDULED

Season Includes Contests With California, W. Va.

A first major event will be the annual Northwest Cross Country meet to be held in the University of Oregon arena tomorrow. The meet will be held in the arena and will be divided into three parts, one dual and two single.

The new dual format, created by the Vandals last year, will be utilized in the meet.

The annual wrestling dual meet between Idaho and Oregon is scheduled for December 16 at the annual conference games. The meet will be held in the arena and will be divided into three parts, one dual and two single.

WHY STUDENTS LEAVE COLLEGE

Homes for University Failures Are Needed

Out of every sixty, thirty lose confidence in their ability to make something of themselves after college.

One out of every sixty, thirty lose their hope of ever succeeding in college,

Outside circumstances influence in many cases, but generally experience is that most of them lack of ambition and lack of direction.

When it's Thanksgiving—and the teams are drawn up for battle on the gridiron—when the first touchdowns go over and the grandstands rock with frenzy

—have a Camel!

When the real bands are playing to make things rollick, and the girls are rocking to the music, and the fans are shouting for joy, there is nothing quite like having a Camel in your pocket.
