FORENSIC GROUP PROPOSES CHANGE IN DEBATE POLICY

Would Cut Down Number To Popular Activity

WILL INVESTIGATE

Plan to Limit Contests May Be Taken Soon

A proposed change of policy in the debate field of the University of Idaho, which has recently been made by the toastmasters and other students, would cut down the number of popular debates on campus. The change, which was proposed by the Forensic Club, would limit the number of debates to one per week. The proposal would affect both the popular and the academic debates.

STALKER CHARGES SAID UNFOUNDED

Misappropriation of University Funds Not Evident

The charges against Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Mitchell, former students of the University of Idaho, for misappropriation of funds from the University, have been found to be unfounded. The charges were based on allegations that the Mitchell's had embezzled funds from the University, but an investigation by the authorities has revealed that there is no evidence to support these charges.

ENGINEERS TEST ROAD MATERIALS

School Laboratory Conducts Tests to Find Most Serviceable Material

The School Laboratory of the University of Idaho has conducted tests to find the most serviceable material for road construction. The laboratory has tested various materials, including asphalt, concrete, and gravel, and has found that asphalt is the most serviceable material for road construction.

CHURCH TRYS TO BE HELD SOON

Vandallote Chorus Begins Drive for Symphony Talent

The Vandallote Chorus, one of the most popular choral groups on the campus, has begun a drive to raise funds for the symphony orchestra. The group has already raised several hundred dollars, and it is hoped that they will be able to raise enough money to support the symphony orchestra.

DIFFICULT DRAMA PRESENTED WITHOUT SUCCESS

Assignment Book Stolen, But Argonaut Must Go On

The assignment book of the Argonaut, the student newspaper, was stolen last week. The editors of the Argonaut have been working hard to complete the next issue, and they will continue to do so despite the loss of the assignment book.
SLEEPER SAM

By F. C. O. White

-2-0-C. Who’s up there? - Everybody up, please.

The Associated Press

The Associated Press National News Bureau

Headquarters, 400 West 50th Street, New York

THE IDAHO ARGONAUT. MOSCOW, TUESDAY, JANUARY 27, 1931

FACULTY MEMBERS TO SOUTH IDAHO

Barton and Chennoweth Will Address National Leader-ship Convention

Members of the Faculty of the University of the State of New York are scheduled to give addresses at the annual leadership meeting of the University of South Idaho, which takes place Feb. 2-6. Those who will make the trip are Prof. J. M. Barton, Professor of Ancient History, and Ed. R. D. Chennoweth, Professor of Agricultural Chemistry.

Mr. Barton, head of the Psychology department, will speak Thurs-day evening on "Religion and Mental Illness." Professor Chennoweth will talk on "Present Day Problems from the Standpoint of Science." In addition, several members of the faculty of South Idaho will make addresses.

The Associated Press

The Associated Press National News Bureau

Headquarters, 400 West 50th Street, New York

Perceval, Desist

The cheerleader for the best pranced line of the cheerleaders to the Northwest, who makes the Argonaut appearance from the front of the bleachers to the back of the press box, is systematic, exacting, and thorough, and it is for this publication that the cheerleaders will have the pleasure of entertaining the throngs of students and fans who make up the student body of the Northwest.

The Associated Press

The Associated Press National News Bureau

Headquarters, 400 West 50th Street, New York

The Fraternity Is Here To Stay

Greek fraternity in colleges of liberal arts is destined to continue years. Greek fraternities are the moral and social bulwarks of a college or university. They are the nuclei of many clubs, societies, and organizations, and they provide a means of fellowship for students from different parts of the country.

The Associated Press

The Associated Press National News Bureau

Headquarters, 400 West 50th Street, New York

Sunday Clothes and Holiday Monkeys

A trend among young people to wear Sunday clothes in observance of the Lord's Day is gaining ground. The trend is especially noticeable among college students and is spreading to other groups as well. The reason given for the trend is that it is a way of showing respect for the Lord's Day.

The Associated Press

The Associated Press National News Bureau

Headquarters, 400 West 50th Street, New York

Argo Knots

Tied by Leo Knight

The Idaho Argonaut

THE IDAHO ARGONAUT. MOSCOW, TUESDAY, JANUARY 27, 1931

FACTORIES MEET AT WASHINGTON:

Several members of the Associated Press staff will be on hand at the forthcoming session of the three-day annual newspaper convention, to be held in the city of Washington.
Idaho Graduates Making Good
In Athletics On Big Outside

Many Former Vandal Stars Hold Top Coaching Jobs

The Idaho eight have all the latest

HOOPE Lites

MAUL BOYD

ABEDIN

Many former Vandal stars hold top coaching jobs, an indication of the enthusiasm for athletics on the Big Outside.

WAVES in position, and a long in delivery, has but

LEADING AT HALF

Sophomore Center Claims the Limelight; Both Star

LEADIERE By BILL ROSEMAN.

The Idaho Vandals, dark horses of the road, tackled the mighty Cornell University yesterday afternoon, and the

REMLER CAMEO

"THE JEWEL OF MIDGET RADIOS"

Complete $9.50
Built of All Standard Parts, Cunningham Tubes

HODGIS' After the Dance

REFRESH YOURSELF

A SANDWICH
A CUP OF EXQUISITE COFFEE
WILL DO IT!

ORIOLE NEST

PAN-ROLLS

Orem Swiftener, otherwise known as "Swift," has been

SPENGLER'S

YOU'LL WANT TO BE ONE OF THE FIRST TO WEAR THE NEW SUITS

New Troggier Models—in smart styles and materials—Correct in every detail for Campus Wear.

Moderately Priced at $18.75

The Fashion Shop, Inc.