Campus Activities Continue
In Spite of Coming Exams

In spite of the drain of final examinations causing most students to tread through the hallways in weary slumber, campus activities have not yet subsided. Last Saturday, Feb. 10, a winter informal sponsored by the Alpha Phi chapter of the Village Songsters was held in the Alpha Phi house. älthough many of the students were present, the house was not as crowded as it has been in previous years. The program was light and social in character, and the accompanying dance was as enjoyable as the program.

ALPHA PHI

In the Alpha Phi house there was another winter informal. The program was light and social in character, and the accompanying dance was as enjoyable as the program.

ALPHA PHI

Women's Teams Play in Finals

Elaine Kennedy, Elise Staub, and the Village Songsters are among the teams that will be in action this week. The Village Songsters will play their final game on Tuesday, while the Women's Team will play their final game on Wednesday. The Village Songsters will play against the Gamma Phi Beta, and the Women's Team will play against the Delta Phi. The games will be held in the I. C. C. at 8:00 p.m.

Women's Team's next game will be against the Gamma Phi Beta, and the Women's Team will play against the Delta Phi. The games will be held in the I. C. C. at 8:00 p.m.

FOR FOURTEEN YEARS

My friendship for the students of the U. has been well known. After a short absence of 15 months this friendship is being renewed again. "CAPS" Drug Store will open shortly and I am looking forward to renewing the friendships which have meant so much to me during the past 14 years. The opening date will be announced shortly.

Sincerely yours,
N. D. CAPLINGER

The Idaho-Idaho State game will be the fifth conference game for both teams. Idaho's first three games were victories over his Missouri

State, Missouri Western State, and

Oregon State. Idaho State blanked

the University of Idaho by a score of 56-0 last Saturday night.
