VANDALS SPLIT GAMES WITH OREGON WEBFEET

Idaho Wins First Contest 38-32 and Loses Second 34-30; Robertson, Oregon, and Lacy

The Idaho Vandals split their non-conference series with Oregon last weekend, winning the first game 38-32, and dropping the second 34-30.

The Wesbeek Winter Carnival last Saturday night gave the occupants their first contact with the snow, and the undergraduates were divided into two sides.

After fighting the Vandals in the first game, the Oregon Webfeet dropped their second contest. The Vandals were led by Bill Hatcher, who had a total of 19 points, which included 8 goals on 13 shots, and 3 goals on 5 shots. The Webfeet were led by John Hatcher, who had a total of 19 points, which included 8 goals on 13 shots, and 3 goals on 5 shots.

STUDENTS FIGHTING FOR UNION STORES AT FRESNO SCHOOL

Such Establishments Give Students Lower Prices and Employment

While students at Fresno, Calif., are fighting to get higher prices and employ the students at the college, there is an attempt being made to get lower prices and employ the students at the college. Fresno had its own union stores, which were started by the students, and they are now being run by the students.

In some places, the union stores have been successful, and in others, they have failed. The reason for their success or failure is not certain, but it is generally believed that the students who own and operate the union stores are more interested in the welfare of the students than the students who work for the stores.

In Fresno, the union stores have been successful, and they have given the students lower prices and employment. The students are able to buy their groceries and other supplies at lower prices than they can at the regular stores.

In some places, the union stores have failed, and the students are unable to get lower prices and employment. In these places, the students are forced to work for lower wages, and they are unable to buy their groceries and other supplies at lower prices.

DEBATE DECISION FAVORS GONZAGA FORENSICS TEAM

Claude Marion, Law Student, Johns Hopkins, Chosen as Winner

The debate, which was held Friday evening, was won by the Gonzaga team, which was represented by Claude Marion, Law Student, Johns Hopkins. The debate was on the question of whether or not the United States should enter the war in Europe.

In his opening statement, Marion argued that the United States should enter the war in Europe, because it would be in the interests of the United States to do so. He also argued that the United States had a moral obligation to enter the war, because it was fighting for democracy.

In his closing statement, Marion argued that the United States should enter the war in Europe, because it would be in the interests of the United States to do so. He also argued that the United States had a moral obligation to enter the war, because it was fighting for democracy.

The decision of the judge was announced after the debate, and Marion was chosen as the winner.

With Springtime Comes Pneumonia

By Evelyn McIlhanny

Springtime is a time when many people suffer from pneumonia. The changing temperatures and humidity can cause the body to become more susceptible to this respiratory infection. It is important to take precautions to prevent pneumonia.

College Students Do Not Think

College students do not think that they will ever need to learn a new philosophy of life. But they do not know how to think independently. By the same token, the present attitude toward learning is not producing the desired results.

STUDY METHODS TO AID SCHOLS

"In the method of teaching each discipline," said a teacher, "there should be an emphasis on the learning process itself rather than the mere content of the discipline. The emphasis should be on learning how to learn, not just what to learn. This can help prepare the mind for the challenges of life." The teacher went on to discuss the importance of integrating school work with real-life experiences.

LEWISTON STUDENTS GIVE BAND CONCERT

A band concert was given to benefit the student band. The concert was held in the evening at the Lewiston High School.

With Alberta Beach back at work after her first two and Howard Beach back after her two and a half months of being sick, the band has been able to practice again. The band is planning to give a concert at the school later this month.

LOOKING AT THE STARS

By Margaret M. McManus

Looking up at the stars, one may see a constellation that is often referred to as the "Big Dipper." This constellation is formed by seven stars, and it is one of the most easily recognizable patterns in the sky.

The "Big Dipper" is easily visible in the northern hemisphere, but it is not visible in the southern hemisphere.

The "Big Dipper" is the most popular constellation that is visible in the northern hemisphere.

The "Big Dipper" is often used to navigate in the night sky.

ELECTION PLAN GETS APPROVAL

Ballot System Works on Poisons of Election

The system of voting for the upcoming election was approved by the majority of voters. The system, which is known as the "ballot system," is designed to reduce the possibility of vote fraud.

The "ballot system" works by requiring voters to fill out a ballot and submit it to a designated location. This system is more secure than the traditional paper-and-pencil system, which allows for vote tampering.

Calland Discusses New Rules; Likes Clipping Penalty Change

Disapproves Establishing of Sideline Zones; Will Increase Scores

The football rules committee for the Idaho-Paciﬁc conference, which met in Seattle, has established a clipping penalty, which will be made a ﬁrst down, but points scored by clipping will be allowed only at the scene of the infraction. This will mean that clipping at the 10-yard line will be allowed and clipping at the one-yard line will not. Calland, who has been favoring such a rule for years, described clipping as the “wound” of the game. The penalty for clipping, he said, should be at least a 15-yard penalty on the spot the violation occurred. Such a penalty, he said, would increase the number of good football men and the number of good football games. The committee also recommended making the third down in football the same as the third down in basketball, and the four-down stretch in football the same as the four-down stretch in basketball.
