Gridiron Hopes High; Many Lettermen Will Turn Out Next Fall

"Reserve Strength for Next Year Exceeds That of Past Four Seasons," Says Coach Calland

Seventeen lettermen from the 1932 team returning-some capable sophomores prospects coming up from the freshman class-some in both in quality and quantity, Coach Calland has his best contingent at his disposal for an attack on next year's football season. The team is expected to be the strongest in the Western Conference, with Washington, Oregon, Colorado, and the Washington and Jefferson teams as its most serious rivals.

"Our team is the best ever assembled," said Coach Calland. "We have able leaders in every section, and many of our boys are returning from a successful season." The team is expected to be able to handle any opponent with ease, and to win the Western Conference. The season is expected to be a success, and the team is expected to win the conference championship.

OFFICERS COMMEND R.O.T.C. INSPECTION

Col. Pillow and Major B. H. Holcomb, Commanding Officers of the R.O.T.C. in the Idaho State College, expressed their commendation for the R.O.T.C. inspection held in the school on Thursday. The inspection was conducted by Maj. B. H. Holcomb and Lieut. Col. C. W. Griswold, who were present from the headquarters of the R.O.T.C. in Washington, D.C.

The inspection was held to test the efficiency of the R.O.T.C. units in the school. The inspectors were impressed with the high standard of discipline and conduct of the cadets.

The inspection was conducted with the following points in mind:

1. The cadets' knowledge of military drill and procedures.
2. The cadets' ability to perform the various maneuvers and drills.
3. The cadets' conduct and discipline.
4. The cadets' knowledge of the history and traditions of the R.O.T.C.

The inspectors were thoroughly impressed with the high standard of discipline and conduct of the cadets. The inspection was a great success and the cadets were commended for their hard work and dedication.

Mothers Were Campus Weekend Visitors At Group Houses

Many group dances entertained Mothers' Day. Sunday night's dance, held by the women's Kappa Delta, was especially popular. At 9:30 p.m., the doors of the lower part of the Georgia Room were opened and a crowd of 200 entered the gymnasium, where a large banner welcomed guests from 35 campus houses. Songs were sung while the visitors were seated and refreshments were served. Following the music, the guests were led to the ballroom for dancing. The music was provided by the Georgia Dance Orchestra, directed by J. W. Harmon. After the dance, the guests returned to the gymnasium for another song, and then were taken to the Georgia Hall for a farewell party. The party lasted until 10:30 p.m., after which the guests returned to their respective rooms.

The COD-ED MANNEQUIN

When snow caps seem sure to remain, the campus is beginning to show signs of life. The students are out and about, enjoying the warmth of the sun and the coolness of the breeze. This is a time when all the colleges are busy with their spring activities and the students are happy to be out and about.
