Dr. H. S. Dhillon Sails For India After Ten Years of Study in U.S.

By Elia Andersen

What a thing it is to return! As Dr. H. S. Dhillon, a native of India, boards a steamer leaving from Seattle, he is reminded of the many things he has accomplished in the United States. His return to India will undoubtedly be greeted with joy and enthusiasm by his family and friends.

Dhillon arrived in the United States ten years ago, a young and eager student, seeking knowledge and experience. He has since become a well-known authority in his field.

"From the very start, my impressions of America were favorable. The high ideals of American living, the generous hospitality, and the democratic atmosphere of this great land have all contributed to my success."

As a result, Dhillon has decided to return to India to contribute his knowledge and expertise to his native country. His contributions are expected to have a positive impact on the development of India in the years to come.

Some things you can prove...

Like the Milder, Better Taste of Chesterfields

Just trying a package or two will show you that Chesterfields are Milder and Better-Tasting. But you can't learn much about why they're that way—except by taking our word for it.

Wherever cigarette tobaccos are on sale, you will find our buyers, busy picking out and purchasing, mild tobaccos—most good enough to eat.

They are hand-blended and rodents—Domestic and Turkish both—in just the right proportion...so that you'll be sure to like it.

Seniors Get Letters

Says Gentleman Jim

The news-header cards go this way:

You can always tell a woman—

You can always tell a woman—

Some of them start in the morning to look well enough. They make the women look well enough. They say that a field must be taken care of in a certain way. If they fix some new ideas about them, then the beauty of them will be seen to be done.

You probably know that to look like this won't do any harm. One who is a woman will usually call her name. But there was one in the street.

The following is what the readers found on the streets.

VANDAL SLUGGERS BOW TO COUGARS

Too Much Driving-Results In 7-4 Defeat: Cancelled

Fairly close to the end of the season and relief was held at #16 Iowa, Washington State University baseball team was beaten 7-4 by the #15 Vandal club. The defeat marked the 10th and last game of the season for the Vandals. For the Cougars, the loss marked the 20th of the season.

Gett Hooper, the second baseman for the Vandal team, was the only real bright spot for the Vandals. He hit a home run in the first inning to score two runs.

Got Hooper's hit, the Vandal team was in the lead, 2-0. In the second inning, the Cougars tied the game with a run. In the third inning, the Cougars took the lead with a two-run homer by Hooper. The Vandal team scored two runs in the fourth inning to tie the game again. In the fifth inning, the Cougars scored three more runs, with Hooper again at the plate, to take the lead back.

The fifth inning was the turning point of the game. The Vandal team scored two more runs in the ninth inning to take the lead for good. The game was called in the ninth inning due to the rain.

The Vandal team was led by Hooper, who had 4 hits in the game. The Cougars were led by Tom Smith, who had 3 hits in the game.

The game was played at the Washington State University stadium, with a crowd of 2,000 fans in attendance.
