Latah To Enroll 39 Young Men In Recreation Jobs

Quota Filled 'At Meeting Here Saturday; Await Word To Sign Up At Lewiston

Latah recently quota of 33 young men between the ages of 18 and 30 for enrollment in the civilian conservation corps were selected at a recent meeting at Lewiston. The enrollment was made in accordance with the terms of the relief agreement between the federal government and the state of Idaho, under which the enrollees will receive a salary of $30 per month, board and lodging while working in recreation where they will become part of a group of men who will work under conservation leaders either with the state or with the federal government. The enrollees will work six months in the fall and six months in the spring.

The quota was broken down by the enrollees and each was asked to sign a list of the number of men who were to report to the center at Lewiston. The enrollees were asked to be present at the meeting here Saturday in order to sign up at Lewiston. The quota will be filled as soon as possible.
