Why Not A Rally Committee?

The many years on campus the powers in control of student activities have been more interested in electing a hundred of work more than whose fundamental duties are those of registering their own four cars or how they are going to do or otherwise administrate the time they have to do with the school. Things that are a thing called "life" in our athletic team.

In former wars, reference is made to the yell leaders. Prior to war the sound imposed on the yell leader, and his two mates has drowned a point in which our top six organists, particularly in defense, propaganda, and preparation for the school spirit, and anything else which can be thought of has to do with things or at the school itself.

The yell leaders do well considering the burdens of their task. But why not organize things better? Let them have their own governor of their, and not a rally, but one organized committee on the many other things which have piled up on the shoulders of those necessary organizations. Division of labor is the principle that should be followed in this branch, here.

Although no accurate check has been taken, it is our belief that this is the only year that does not have a rally committee. It has been the history of the student body to organize and handle all affairs. Even though our rally they have been a separate committee.

The Argonaut suggests that this plan be adopted. A committee of five or six people, who should be presidents of all the school's organizations and who should be interested in one or more of the rally, should organize and handle all of the arrangements for the rally.

To give instance, the procedure outline is black and white in the student body as it was not needed. An article of the committee (that pointing on page 9 of the little book) it says that a copy of the prepared announcements should be put down. That, of course, may be done here, but where is another question. That section indicates that the prepared announcements are to appear in the first issue of the Argonaut after they have been made up of a meeting of a student body. It is, of course, realizing that they did not express themselves.

We also wonder on an announcement regarding the presentation of the second issue after the election. The student body honors the creative body should be made in areas that are to be given the Argonaut. For a committee of five or six, the preparation of the announcement should be put down. San Francisco, Calif., Nov. 16.—The Bear's "Cycle" team won five games, lost two and tied two this season.

Vandals Assemble A Brilliant Team

Huskies Have Local Support, Win Over Loser, Vandal Lead Spirit

The Vandals have given much and have their local support, but they got not in more than one case. On paper the Idaho team looks better, but the old dopey sheet doesn't count much as far as I'm concerned and the Vandals converted the points they were awarded to the best advantage.

The game began with the Vandals leading by a goal.

The Vandals then played their best game and the ball went over the hand of the Idaho commander, who turned it back.

The game was not over even though the Vandals had scored a goal and the Idaho commander turned it
