FORESTY EDITOR GIVES TALK HERE

George M. Cornwell Speaks on "The Sawlog" Friday

George M. Cornwell, editor of the Daily Oregonian, circulated magazine, published out of Portland, will speak here Friday evening, according to布置宣大学生. Several other members of the student body have joined him.

The talk will be given with the knowledge that the sawlog is a valuable product, and that its value is not confined to the sawlog itself, but extends to other products as well.

Cornwell has made a constructive study of the subject and in his talk will present a number of interesting facts and figures about the sawlog. He will also discuss the various methods of cutting and dressing the sawlog, and give a detailed account of the various uses to which it is put.

The talk will be held in the Student Union Building, and is open to all students and friends of the University.

CARS COLLIDE WEST OF GHY

A heavy gasoline truck was involved in an accident outside the boundary of the University campus Saturday night. The truck was carrying gasoline from the campus to the outskirts of the city. The accident occurred when the truck ran off the road and struck a tree. The driver of the truck was not injured. The accident caused a temporary interruption of gasoline delivery to the area.

COACHES PROMISE WILDFIRE AND BEARSKIN WILL FLY

Kling and Moscow teams were honored with the coach's promise of fir and bearskin during the annual mixer held at the campus. The coaches, both well known for their skill and expertise, promised to bring the wildfire and bearskin to the mixer, adding to the excitement of the event.

PEOPLE TO HAVE BUSY WEEK END AND HOLIDAYS

Will Leave Wednesday for Trip to Spokane

The members of the Pep band will leave Thursday for a trip to Spokane to perform at the annual mixer. They will be accompanied by the cheerleaders and the football team. The trip will be a long one, but the band is looking forward to the opportunity to entertain the students of the University of Idaho.

MUSICIANS WANT SOUTH IDAHO TRIP

BOB ROBINSON EXPLAINS BALANCE OF TRADE

"International Relations Club Will Hear Book Reports"

The balance of trade is a complex and often misunderstood concept. Dr. J. H. Smith, professor of economics at the University, will explain the concept and its significance to the club members. The meeting will be held in the Student Union Building.

Students Give Music Recital

"Will be Presented in Sunday Afternoon Program at Auditorium"

The students' music recital will be held in the auditorium on Sunday afternoon. The recital will feature a variety of musical performances by students from different disciplines. The audience is encouraged to attend and enjoy the talent on display.

Omphalodes, one of the most beautiful flowers in the world, will be the focus of the recital. The flower is named after the ancient Greek god, Omphalos, who was said to have been born from the earth itself.

Some new leaves are being covered over as the students think of the coming winter. It is a time to look back on the past year and to plan for the future.

Professor's piano students will play at the recital. The program will also include works by other composers, including Beethoven and Chopin.

Organisation
By All Means

Hypocritic taxes are great! Their taxes don’t tax the best but, there is still place for that. In my home, I have been taken up with the organisation of a “Partial Officer” and a "Total Officer". Probably plenty of you are Wondering what that is. A "Partial Officer" is an officer who pays taxes but don’t obey the laws. A "Total Officer" is an officer who pays taxes and obeys the laws. Actually it is more than one man can do and do well, but if you find one, please let me know.

They say the "Partial Officer" has "moral obligations" and the "Total Officer" has "moral duties". They say the "Partial Officer" has "moral impulses" and the "Total Officer" has "moral necessities". They say the "Partial Officer" has "moral reactions" and the "Total Officer" has "moral reactions". They say the "Partial Officer" has "moral resources" and the "Total Officer" has "moral resources". They say the "Partial Officer" has "moral needs" and the "Total Officer" has "moral needs". They say the "Partial Officer" has "moral desires" and the "Total Officer" has "moral desires". They say the "Partial Officer" has "moral interests" and the "Total Officer" has "moral interests".

Moralism is the highest form of "Partial Offensiveness" and the lowest form of "Total Offensiveness".
So Round, so Firm, so Fully Packed

It's easy to see why so many women prefer Lucky Strike. Luckies are fully packed with long strands of choice tobaccos, round and firm to the very tips. That means Luckies always draw easily, always burn smoothly. It also means no annoying loose ends to clog to lips or mess up the nice things in a woman's purse. And every day more and more women are showing their appreciation by saying "Luckies please!"

ALWAYS the finest tobacco
ALWAYS the finest workmanship
ALWAYS Luckies please!
