In Defense of the Beast

‘Tis the last time of the year, you know, and some of us are mighty glad to see the end of the year. Our grateful thanks to all of those who have patronized our store during the past year.

Grins and Gropes To The Editor

Grits. A few remarks about the past few months. I believe that the past few months have been the best of my life. I have been able to enjoy the outdoors and the company of friends. I have also been able to take care of my family and my health. I hope that the coming months will be even better.

Grits and Gropes To The Editor

It’s not too late to talk about the past few months. I believe that the past few months have been the best of my life. I have been able to enjoy the outdoors and the company of friends. I have also been able to take care of my family and my health. I hope that the coming months will be even better.
Social Activities Are Many
As Holiday Season Nears

The excitement of the season "single girl" season will be primarily enjoyed in the company of friends and family. However, those who choose to explore the festive season can participate in a variety of activities to enhance their holiday experience.

Delta Chi Delta Delta held their annual House Party on Friday at the Delta Chi Delta House. The event was attended by guests from Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Alpha Phi, and Alpha Omega Lambda. The party was hosted by Delta Chi Delta and featured a dance and a special performance by the Sigma Alpha Epsilon cheerleaders.

Special thanks to the Delta Chi Delta House for providing a wonderful venue for the party.

WHY LUCKIES ARE SO MILD, SO SMOOTH

Open a pack of Luckies and lay the 20 cigarettes side by side. You can't sell one from another. Every Lucky is round, firm, and fully packed—with choice Turkish and domestic tobaccos.

And every Lucky is free from annoying loose ends. The tips are clean-cut—the tobacco doesn't spill out. That's why Luckies draw easily, burn evenly—and are always mild and smooth.
