Death Strike Faculty Men This Summer

Professors C.C. Vincent and J. E. Rutherford Die Suddenly

Vincent Here Since 1910

Rutherford Elected to New York Attentional and a Fellow of the American ticinerim

With the deaths yesterday of Professor C. C. Vincent and J. E. Rutherford, the faculty of the University of Idaho lost two of its most revered members. Professor Vincent, the oldest member of the faculty and an active member for more than 50 years, was known for his contributions to the field of geology. Professor Rutherford, a leading expert in the field of botany, was widely respected for his research on the region's plant life.

J. W. Fitch Named As Mines Director

President Roosevelt Makes Covelment Offer on August 16

On August 16, President Roosevelt announced the appointment of John W. Fitch as the new director of the Bureau of Mines. Fitch had served as the head of the mining department at the University of Idaho and was a well-known figure in the mining community.

L. Whitlock Dies After Auto Crash

Car Leveson Road Speckles Campus Musician

The many friends of Professor L. Whitlock will mourn the loss of this talented musician, who was killed in a tragic auto accident. Whitlock had been an active member of the University of Idaho's music department for many years.

Student and Faculty Officials' Greetings

The following greetings were delivered by members of the student and faculty bodies:

Registrar: Registration at the University of Idaho is now in progress. The registrar's office is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Dean of the Faculty: The faculty wishes to extend its congratulations to the new students and to all members of the University of Idaho community.

President: The president extends a warm welcome to all new students and invites them to participate in the many activities and events planned for the year.

New Business Arrives on Idaho Campus

W. H. Fitches was Purchased to Cut Down High Cost of Travel

A new business has recently opened on the campus of the University of Idaho, W. H. Fitches, which offers a variety of services to reduce the high cost of travel. The business has been established with the goal of providing students and faculty with convenient and affordable travel options.

Here's the Dope--

The yellow sheets with the program and rules of procedure for registration have been distributed to the registrar's office and are ready for use. All students, both new and old, are encouraged to register as soon as possible. Students who register before September 1 will receive a discount on their tuition fees. Students who register after September 1 will be charged the full tuition fee.

Over 2000 Students Expected In 1934-35

Record Breaking Enrollment Prophesied By School Authorities, 1990 Here in 1930-31

The enrollment at the University of Idaho is expected to reach over 2000 students this year, according to President J. E. Rutherford. This is the highest enrollment in the university's history, and the authorities are predicting that even more students will enroll in the future.

Many Parties For Fall Rush

With the new Pan-Hellenic rules going into effect, more parties than ever before have been held this fall. The parties held by the different sororities, fraternities, and affiliated groups have been more elaborate and have included a greater variety of activities than ever before.

HOUSE MOTHER DIES AFTER OPERATION

The death of Mrs. M. O. Reed, Alpha Phi house mother, September 18, at the Democratic Hospital in Moscow, came as a shock to all of the students who were under her care during her time as House Mother. She was a beloved and respected figure on campus, and her passing has left a void in the lives of many.
