Military Bands
To Give Concert

Robert B. Lyons Directs Varied Program; Includes March and Musical Ballad

Something new in band music was presented at the annual winter concert when the two military bands, directed by Robert B. Lyons of the U.S. Military Academy and the University of Idaho, presented a varied program. The concert was held in the campus gym at 8 p.m. and included a total of about 90 minutes. The program was designed to showcase the talents of the student musicians and to provide an entertaining evening for the campus community.

The concert opened with the U.S. Military Academy Band, directed by Robert B. Lyons, playing a selection from "The Star-Spangled Banner." The band was followed by the University of Idaho Band, directed by John G. Perdue, playing "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." The concerts continued with a variety of musical pieces that included "The Great War," "The Spirit of St. Louis," and "The Music Man." The concert concluded with the playing of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" by both bands.

The musical numbers were well-received by the audience, who praised the performers for their talent and skill. The concert was a great success and was enjoyed by the students, faculty, and staff of the university.

The next concert in the series will be held on April 15 at 8 p.m. in the campus gym, with the U.S. Military Academy Band performing "The Star-Spangled Banner" and the University of Idaho Band playing "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." The concert will be followed by a variety of musical selections, including "The Great War," "The Spirit of St. Louis," and "The Music Man." The concert will conclude with the playing of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" by both bands.

The concerts are free and open to the public, and are a great way to enjoy some music and the company of fellow students. The concerts are a must-see for anyone who loves music and wants to support the talent of the student musicians.
Hawkeye On Duty

Even though the team hasn’t been well things have been well with in its recent meetings at the training center, and if the team hasn’t just had about the substance of the team, the boys will turn to a new and different direction.

Willis Smith Completes Professional Football Year

With his addition of another professional player, Idaho State head coach Fred Smith has taken a step forward. The new recruit is Bob Cooper, a fullback from Idaho State College.

Cooper is 5 feet 9 inches tall and 175 pounds. He was a three-year letterman at Idaho State and was named second team all-conference in 1952.

Smith said Cooper will be used in a variety of ways, including as a fullback and a halfback.

"He's a good all-around player and will help us in many ways," Smith said.

Smith also has added four other players to the team, including a quarterback, an offensive tackle, and two defensive backs.

In his four years at Idaho State, Smith has compiled a record of 24-24-2.

Pair of Wins Give Oregonsians Series by Three To One

The Vandal Challenge League games were played Friday and Saturday nights at the Cowpens in Missoula, Montana. The Oregon team won both games, 21-13 and 24-19. The two wins give the Oregonians a three-game lead over the Vandals in the series.

The first game was a close one, with Oregon leading 14-13 at halftime. The second game was more one-sided, with Oregon winning 24-19.

The Oregonians are now 5-2 in the league and are hoping to continue their winning streak.
