Miller Welcomes Freshmen to Club

Thirty-Six Eligible for English Club Through Freshmen English A

The English club is always glad to recognize good work by its members. And L. W. Miller, head of the English department, presented a number of awards to the particularly outstanding students in the field of English.

The club is interested in the work of all students, but it is especially interested in those who have shown a dedication to the study of the language and literature. The members of the club are encouraged to participate in literary activities and to contribute to the development of the English language.

By the way, the club meets every Thursday evening in the English Department.
SOCIETY

A BLUE moon toasted and a Valentine forest were the distinctive decorations for the dances of Alpha Chi Omega and Phi Delta Tau.

Alpha Chi Omega held their annual Ball at the Hotel Monaco. The masquerade costume was black and white. The Beta Phi Mu also held a dance on the same evening. The Phi Delta Tau, assisted by the Alpha Chi Omega, held a "Blue Moon Tower." The mirror table was surrounded by blue lights and the dance was held in the East Room of the Hotel Monaco. The Beta Phi Mu were assisted by the Delta Chi. The Phi Delta Tau was held in the Ballroom of the Hotel Monaco and was attended by many of Moscow's prominent citizens. LUCKIES... THEY ONLY LEAVE CENTER LEAVES
CENTER LEAVES GIVE YOU THE MILDEST SMOKE

I give you the mildest smoke, the best-tasting smoke. You wonder what makes me different. I'll tell you. It's center leaves. I screen the little, sticky, top leaves . . . to better to the taste. I screen the course bottom leaves, so harsh and unappealing. I am careful of your friendship, for I am made only of the mild, fragrant, expensive center leaves.
