The Victor — and Defeated

I wish to thank the student body for giving me the opportunity to lead us, and I thank the students that defeated me. I believe in a strong ASUI and I hope that we can work for the good of the students.

VANDALEVS SING AT BANQUET

The Idaho Vandals under the direction of Prof. Daniel Curtiss, head of the music dept., are presenting a program Thursday evening, April 17, at 8 p.m., in the Union. The program will consist of songs selected from various departments of the university. The music department will also be represented by the Vandals, and Mr. Curtiss will conduct the program. The program will be held in the Union auditorium. The proceeds from the program will be used for the ASUI scholarship fund.

By Walter Andrews in the forlorn hope that you have any of us at all because they’re unlocking their hands and starting with dogs, then how do you keep your hands up? If you’ve anything like the average you can carry on the only thing that’s ever done with a pencil is to come down the line of the Washington Post. The Washington Post is a newspaper that was founded in 1835 and was the first newspaper in the United States to be published in the District of Columbia. It is one of the oldest newspapers in the United States.

FREDERICK HEATH - Medical. Heath says: “I’m in first year of medical school now, with the idea of specializing in neurology. Anyway, I’m taking three hours a week. Tuesdays and Thursdays—embryology. I spend three afternoons a week on biochemistry, three on physiology lab and lectures. If I have to make any sacrifice it means sacrificing the things which I enjoy. The more sacrifice I make in this, the better I like it.”
