Vandal Football Team and Pep Band Thrill South Idaho Crowds

The Idaho Idaho Poblador arrived on the campus from Moscow the day before, completing one of the most important and crucial games in the season.

Idaho, led by Coach Spaugy, Jr., and the Idaho Pep Band, displayed their best efforts in the game against the University of Idaho.

Idaho's defense was led by their star quarterback, Bob Shaw, and their hard-hitting center, John Smith. Idaho's offense was led by their dynamic running back, Jim Rogers, and their talented wide receiver, Mike Wilson.

Idaho's defense was able to shut down the University of Idaho's offense, allowing only 14 points in the entire game.

Idaho's offense was able to score 21 points, with Rogers and Wilson each scoring a touchdown.

The game ended with Idaho winning 21-14, securing their place in the championship game.

Nevada Team Falls By Score of 26-0

Gris and Grijpes

The Truth is through Bob McGar, who has decided to return to the campus today with his last gig at the campus. McGar, who has been a fixture on campus for some time, has decided to leave his position at the campus. We wish him the best of luck in his future endeavors.

Still Another Slant on the R.O.T.C.

The highlight of the program was the Drunk's Dignitary, a student who was arrested for being on the campus without a pass. The student was also arrested for being in the possession of a weapon. The student was released from jail and will have to appear in court later this week.

The Drunk's Dignitary has been a fixture on campus for some time, but this is the first time he has been arrested.

Students Thankful For Vaccination

The students were happy to see the Drunk's Dignitary back on campus. They were grateful for his presence and were happy to see him again after his brief absence.

Concert Notes

The concert was held at the campus yesterday evening. The concert was attended by a large crowd of students and faculty. The performers were well received by the audience and the concert was a success.

In Brief

The new student government was elected yesterday. The student government will be in charge of the campus events and activities for the next year. The new student government is made up of students from different classes and majors.

Boise Enthusiastic Over Idaho Game

G. P. Mix Reports Sports High After Vandals Show Againt Nebraska

"Boise now," said one admirer, "is a big sports town," and Seattle, Ore. The Idaho-Vandals game in Boise next Saturday is the first of the two series. The season started well with a victory over Idaho State.

"Boise," another enthusiast said, "may not win the championship, but it will be a good game." The game will be played on the Idaho State field, and the Idaho fans are eagerly awaiting the outcome.

Boise fans are already planning for the next game, to be played in the fall. The Idaho fans are looking forward to the game and are already planning for the next autumn.

Vandals Must Stop Fleet Chuck Cheeshire To Win Against U.C.L.A.'s Bruns Saturday

In their final game of the season the Idaho Vandals take on U.C.L.A. in what promises to be a tough battle. Game starts next Wednesday morning at 7:30 in the University of Idaho Field House, Moscow.

Cheachers, Bunny:

Chuck Cheeshire, Idaho's all-time leading scorer, will meet the challenge of U.C.L.A.'s Willie Bruns, who has scored 600 points in just 24 games. The Vandals are hoping to spoil Bruns' bid for the national championship.

The Vandals exhibited some of their best basketball last weekend against the University of Idaho, winning 75-67. After leading by as much as 20 points in the second half, the Vandals held on for the win.

Basketball Squad Is Handicapped by Lack of Experienced Players

One of the reasons for Idaho's success this season is the lack of experienced players on the team. With only one senior, the Vandals are依靠 young players to fill the void.

Fox to Build Team?

An article in the Idaho Statesman on Fox's future as a coach mentions that he might consider building a team around his star player, Mike Johnson. The article suggests that Fox's team could be a contender in the West Coast Conference.
