Every sixth person in the population of 86 million of India with 1954 was present at the world's highest peak, Everest, 29,002 ft.

The northern mountains India, surrounded by the Himalayas on the east and the range of the Andes on the west, contain some of the world's greatest rivers. Asia has more than 1,200 named rivers, most of them origination in the Himalayas. India's longest river is the Indus, which runs through the Punjab and into the Indus delta in Pakistan.

The land of India's wealth in the great evergreens that are vulnerable to exploration, tourists and adventurers. India's rich variety of wildlife, from the tigers and crocodiles in the forests to the elephants and rhinos in the deserts, draws millions of visitors each year. India's wildlife is threatened by habitat loss as forests are cleared for agriculture and development. Despite these challenges, India's wildlife continues to thrive, attracting visitors from around the world.

In addition to its natural resources, India is also home to a diverse range of cultures, languages, and religions. With a population of over 1.3 billion people, India is the second most populous country in the world. The official language of India is Hindi, but there are 22 other official languages and more than 1,500 dialects spoken throughout the country.

In summary, India is a country of great natural beauty, rich cultural heritage, and diverse wildlife. It is a place of immense possibilities and challenges, and its people are working hard to create a better future for themselves and their country.
Campus Groups Elect And Study

Friday night was the occasion for being #1 when Jean and Dennis were named the winners of the College of Business Administration's Student Government Association elections. The event was held in the ballroom of the Kinsley Student Union.

Many couples attended a formal on Friday night after the election.

Babes Break Scoring Mark

The previous record, 104 points, was set by last year's 1st half when they defeated WSC on 113 to 12.

Friday night Glen Purcell's Babes gained revenge for their first of the year loss to Fairchild, dumping the flam-} galing Flyers 70 to 69.

The point was given the fresh- }

Infarnal M's winning streak to five games in a row.
