Student To Travel For Easter Seals

BY ROSE SMITH

This summer a 22-year-old blind student, especially to University music productions, will spend her Easter Seals vacation as an ambassador of the United States on an Easter Seal sponsored tour.

Under a project entitled "Music Lives," sponsored by the National Association of the Blind, several blind youth will travel to various countries in Europe, staying with families and performing in community functions.

The chosen student, skillful musician and fine pianist, has been traveling within the United States for her music. She will be assisted during her tour by several countries, including Italy, Spain, and France.

Leprechauns, Ireland Final Assembly Topic

"St. Patrick's Day," the topic of the St. Patrick's Day assembly was announced by President Baldwin. Dr. Steven, a professional musician, will speak on the history of St. Patrick and his influence on Irish culture.

Receptacle, an expert in Irish literature, will discuss the literary works of St. Patrick and their significance.

Dinner was served at 6:30 p.m., following the assembly.

May Fete Highlighted By First Theophilus Award Presentation

Distinguished Seniors Cited At Assembly

The first presentation of the Donald E. and Celia E. Theophilus award to the outstanding graduating senior was made at the Memorial Union.

Jim Johnson, ex-ASUU President, was the recipient of the award, which will be presented annually to a student who has demonstrated outstanding leadership.

Outgoing University President D. B. Theophilus received the Air Force ROTC scholarship, which will be presented to him in May. Following the presentation, he was presented with the award, which will be presented annually to a student who has demonstrated outstanding leadership.

Campus 'Unquiet' Sunday

The presence of non-students on campus did not deter a large turnout of students attending the assembly. The student body was assembled in the Memorial Union, where President Theophilus gave the keynote address.

He emphasized the importance of maintaining a quiet campus environment and stated that the non-students present were here to support the cause.

On Calendar

The May Fete was the highlight of the week, with a variety of events scheduled to celebrate the month of May. The event included a concert, a dance, and a picnic on campus.

The first Greek Week event was a dance held on Monday evening, with music provided by the university band. The second event was a picnic on the campus lawn, which included a barbecue and outdoor games. The final event was a concert on the campus steps, featuring local bands.

THE SAFE WAY to stay alert without harmful stimulants

"Noah" keeps you mentally alert with the same safe, natural stimulant that millions of cars use today. It's a safe and natural stimulant to avoid drowsiness. It's as easy to take as a cup of coffee. The best way to take "Noah" is with a glass of orange juice. The best time to take "Noah" is after lunch. Another good time is before the big game.

Vandal Gridders 'Much Improved' Says Musaeus

Idaho grid coach Steve Musaeus saw a "greatly improved" defense in Saturday's 3-1 win over Whitworth. "I feel we're really making strides," he said. "We've got to look like a football team out there, and I think we're getting to that point." Musaeus permitted his team to make three errors before losing the game, and he praised the defense for doing its part. "The defense has really come up big for us," he said.
