Dorm food service point system with 3 options not criticized yet

No concrete arrangements yet for transportation to Spokane

No concrete plans have been made for transportation of students to Spokane for the football game scheduled by the Washington State University Student Body. Mrs. G. M. Paton, president of the Student Body, said that the football game has been canceled.

The StuBody has decided that there should be a transportation service to Spokane for the football game.

The Student Body has decided that the transportation service should be provided by the University of Idaho. However, the University of Idaho has not yet decided whether or not to provide the transportation service.

Dorm room service point system with 3 options not criticized yet

The dorm room service point system has been criticized for not offering enough options. The system was introduced to provide students with flexibility in choosing their meal options. However, some students feel that the options available are limited and do not cater to their dietary preferences.

Faculty Club to become Student Union Building

The Faculty Club, which is located on the campus, has been proposed to be converted into a Student Union Building. The Student Union Board is currently considering this proposal.

The Student Union Board has received a proposal from the Faculty Club to convert the building into a Student Union Building. The proposal includes plans to transform the building into a student-centered space with facilities for meetings, social events, and study areas.

The Student Union Board will consider the proposal and make a decision on whether to approve it. If approved, the building will become a hub for student activities and will provide a central space for students to gather and socialize.

Tickets same as last year

Tickets for the upcoming football game are available at the same prices as last year. The University of Idaho has announced that tickets will remain at the same prices to accommodate the needs of fans and students.

The university has decided to maintain the same ticket prices as last year to ensure that the tickets remain accessible to a wide range of attendees. This decision was made after considering the feedback from fans and students on the ticket prices.

The Idaho Argonaut

By Mike Grz

The election of a faculty member is a significant event for students in the Idaho Argonaut. The election procedure was straightforward, as shown in the accompanying table:

- Election Results:
  - Candidates:
    - Pete Dill
    - Mary Smith
  - Voters: 120
  - Elected:
    - Pete Dill

The election successful completion. The Idaho Argonaut congratulates Pete Dill on his victory and looks forward to his contributions to the university.

Women students who are not graduating in 1971 will only be required to submit the savings for graduation requirements, according to Mrs. Edith K. Pecht, associate dean, because the curriculum changes last spring. Women then graduate in 1972 and will have the same saving requirement that requires three credits of physical education and two credits for physical health and the meaningful living requirement. For this purpose only, the meaningful living requirement will be satisfied as a women’s graduation requirement.

Vandal coaching staff brings experience to the players

The order for a football season to be a success, players are important. But before the players can be successful, the head coach is important. In the case of Idaho, they are named Muhlbeier, by build annual conditioning will will annual coaches with many years of experience.

This season, one Bobbitt, W. will assumed V.C. McNamara in guiding the Vandal into the football season. McNamara is to "use the same basic offense we employed the past two years." It seems reasonable the Vandals will move the ball.

Before joining the Vandal staff in 1980 as offensive coach, Bobbitt coached the Big Spring High School team in his home state of Texas and later moved to defensive coordinator of the University of Texas at El Paso. Bobbitt also coached the University of Mississippi at Oxford, as well as the University of Texas at Austin.

"Texas is a big state, there is everything important, but he would rather have the high school experience than the "lesser programs." A "Futon, as Bobbitt explains, "you can create a family in the school that is missing in many junior college programs.

This year, the Vandals joined the rest of the Big Sky and Gulf Coast Conference and will have a "new" look because of the new rules in effect in this season, which he feels "will improve our offensive and defensive performances.

The first Idaho football roster in the Pacific Northwest will be revealed Saturday, Sept. 12, when the Vandals open at the University of Washington State at Pullman.

The Vandals have the following players on their depth charts for the upcoming season:

- John Hopper, a junior transfer from the University of Idaho, will start at quarterback.
- Gary Jackson, a sophomore from the University of Wyoming, will start at fullback.
- Bobbitt, who coached the Vandals at Washington State last season, will start at end.
- Dick Goddard, a junior transfer from the University of Idaho, will start at tackle.

Congress of the United States begun and held at the City of New York, on Wednesday the fourth of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-nine.

THE Convention of a number of the States having, at the time of their adopting the Constitution, expressed a desire, in order to prevent misconstruction or abuse of its powers, that further declaratory and restrictive clauses should be added: And as extending the ground of public confidence in the Government, will best assure the benevolent ends of its institution:

RESOLVED, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, that the following Articles be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States, as Amendments to the Constitution of the United States: all, or any of which Articles, when ratified by three fourths of the said Legislatures, to be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of the said Constitution, viz.

ARTICLES in addition to, and Amendment of the Constitution of the United States of America, proposed by Congress, and ratified by the Legislatures of the several States, pursuant to the fifth Article of the Original Constitution.

Article the first...... After the first enumeration required by the first Article of the Constitution, there shall be one Representative for every thirty thousand, until the number shall amount to one hundred, after which, the proportion shall be so regulated by Congress, that there shall not be less than one hundred Representatives, nor less than one Representative for every forty thousand persons, until the number of Representatives shall amount to two hundred, after which, the proportion shall be so regulated by Congress, that there shall not be less than two hundred Representatives, nor more than one Representative for every fifty thousand persons.

Article the second .... No law, varying the compensation for the services of the Senators and Representatives, shall take effect, until an election of Representatives shall have intervened.

Article the third...... Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press, or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed.

Article the fourth...... No Person shall be held in closer than in time of peace, be quartered in any house, without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

Article the fifth...... The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no Warrants shall issue but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

Article the sixth...... No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the Militia, when in actual service in time of War or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offence to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled in any criminal case, to be a witness against himself; nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use without just compensation.

Article the seventh...... In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which jury shall have been previously ascertainment by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for his defence.

Article the eighth...... In suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved, and no fact tried by a jury, shall be otherwise re-examined in any Court of the United States, than according to the rules of the common law.

Article the ninth...... Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.

Article the tenth...... The enumeration in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

Article the eleventh...... The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people.
